MUSINGS + MESSAGES

👤 Msgr. John Kasza, Moderator ✉ frjohn@stol.church

Today's responsorial psalm "Here I am Lord; I come to do your will" is quite familiar to us. Many songs have been written using this text. But this begs the question: Do we really mean what we say? Am I truly ready to do the will of God? Am I open to being vulnerable before God and allowing him to use me as his instrument?

There is a saying from Jeremiah the prophet, "you duped me Lord and I allowed myself to be duped." We often place ourselves at the service of the Lord, but we get more than we bargained for. Serving God means being open to a lot of surprises.

This week's Connecting Point

question helps us to put things into perspective: "How am I called to make the light of Christ known? If I allow the light that is within me to shine, I am exposed, vulnerable, and open. In effect, I put a target on my back because I am now saying that I want to be like Christ and that puts me in danger of scrutiny and criticism.

Connecting Point

How will I use my gifts to guide others to Jesus?

Fr. Chris Talbot - St. Francis/St. Max eljefetalbot@hotmail.com

In the Gospel this week, John the Baptist proclaims Jesus the Christ by saying, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." Jesus in fact fulfills the vision of Isaiah from the first reading, "I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth."

It is wonderful to think of Jesus as the light to the nations and all, but what about you and me. Do we participate in this mission of bringing Christ's light to the ends of the earth? We find the answer to this in our Baptism where we are each anointed as members of Jesus Christ, priest, prophet and king. As members of Christ we have the same calling to be a light of salvation to our end of the earth. This can seem more than a little overwhelming. How can I make the light of Christ known?

Well, the church gives us a blueprint of 14 ways in which we as Catholic Christians make the light of Christ known. They are called the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy:

Corporal Works of Mercy

1. Feed the hungry
2. Give drink to the thirsty
3. Clothe the naked
4. Shelter the homeless
5. Visit the Sick
6. Visit the imprisoned
7. Bury the dead

Spiritual Works of Mercy

1. Counsel the doubtful
2. Instruct the ignorant
3. Admonish sinners
4. Comfort the afflicted
5. Forgive offences
6. Bear wrongs patiently
7. Pray for the living and the dead

All these works of mercy have one thing in common. They respond with love and mercy to the needs of others. In fact, every time we respond to someone in need with compassion, we make known the light of Christ. Throughout each day, God gives us so many opportunities to do just that by; making lunches for the kids, speaking a kind word to the clerk at the checkout, blessings rather than cursing the person that cuts in front of me, listening to a coworker, giving a hug, or cheering someone up. The list goes on and on of the little ways in which we are called to make the light of Christ known. As Therese of Lisieux advises us, we don't have to do great things we just have to do all the little things with Great Love.

► What Is Marriage Ministry at St. Therese?

The Marriage Ministry Team has been part of St. Therese for well over 10 years. It is made up of several couples who care, deeply, about continuing to grow and enrich your and their marriages. It exists to offer couples both married and engaged, opportunities to continue to strengthen their marriage through fun and faithful events. These events continue to reinforce our Christian beliefs of commitment to each other through Jesus Christ. This ministry is not for troubled marriages...for that we recommend Retrouvaille.

Here are some of the events we have offered:

- Love and Respect Series
- Couples Prayer Series
- Laugh Your Way to a Better Marriage
- 10 Great Dates
- Jubilarian Mass
- Cupid's Comedy Night (see Events section)
- and many more

Cupid's Comedy Night is now a favorite annual event. This year, it takes place on Saturday, Feb. 4th. If you haven't already bought your tickets, you can purchase them in the parish office or stol.church for $60 a couple. You don't want to miss this great event! See you there. Also, visit our Marriage Ministry Kiosk near the front doors.

► Evangelizing with Children

Most of us are familiar with the well-known quote from Benjamin Franklin: "Tell me and I forget, Teach me and I remember, Involve me and learn".

We are well aware of the fact that the earlier in life that we learn about something, the sooner it begins to have practical meaning to our lives. So teaching children about evangelization at a young age is important for all of us, whether we are their parents, grandparents, aunts/uncles, etc. We all have a role to play. Starting with a simple, age-appropriate definition is important...Perhaps something like: Helping others, as well as ourselves to grow in one's relationship with Jesus Christ.

Here are a few simple ways to engage children:

- Learning the importance of daily prayer
- Starting prayer by giving gratitude
- Prayer for a family member, a friend, a situation, etc.

- Inviting a friend to a church event
- Works for charity for a neighbor in need, Toys for Tots event, helping at a soup kitchen, etc.
- Lessons in learning how to listen
- Lessons in respecting other's opinion

So many other ways that you can discuss and come up with on your own!!

Enjoy and have fun with this!

► Join the Knight's of Columbus

Men of St. Therese of Lisieux: Do you feel that you would like to make a difference in your parish and community? Do you have a couple hours a month that you are able to devote to help raise money in support of the disadvantaged in our community, to work on projects to build the faith of our fellow Catholics and strengthen our families, to help with improvement projects at our church or for those who do not have the means to do them themselves? Then join the Knights of Columbus.

The Knights of Columbus is an International Order of Catholic men who are called to lead with faith, protect our families, serve others, and defend values in a busy changing world. Council 11957 at St. Therese of Lisieux celebrated 25 years of serving our parish last summer and new enthusiastic members are needed to keep the momentum going. You have seen Knights serving as Ushers, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors and Choir members at church or collecting donations for Tootsie Rolls in our community. You may have eaten at the Fish Frys, Pancake Breakfasts and Pasta Dinners hosted by the Knights or had coffee and donuts in the Gathering Space after Mass. Donations from these events go to support Michigan citizens with intellectual or physical challenges and to those men studying to be priests. The Council must grow to be able to continue to provide these services.

You can join now by simply visiting kofc.org/joinus and enter our council #11957 in the application. Use the code `blessedmcgivney` when you sign up and your first year's membership dues will be free. You will become an Online Member and will receive a welcoming call from our Membership Director. If you have any questions, call Paul Bieber (Grand Knight) at (5486)556-1800 or Scott Kozak (Deputy Grand Knight/Membership Director) at (248)709-6040. We look forward to welcoming you into the Knights of Columbus.

► Armor of God Men's Group

The Armor of God's Men's Group completed "The Wild Goose" series on December 19, 2022. This series was about how the Holy Spirit interacts with us in our daily lives and works to develop a loving relationship with us. The next Armor of God session will begin on Monday, Feb. 20th at 7:00pm. Mark this date on your calendar and stay tuned to the bulletin for more details about the next personal/family faith building program that will be used.

Discipleship Formation

▶ Walking the Path

Today, as I continue our discussion of the meaning of each of the four separate ways we experience Christ's presence in the Mass, we'll discuss Christ's presence in the community that is gathered. This is a fairly straightforward assertion, since it was Jesus who said, "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, I am there among them" (Matthew 18:20 -NRSV). Christ is present in the group of people who gather to offer the Mass. Not only did Jesus promise to be with his followers whenever they gathered in his name, but the people who gather at Mass are members of the Church, the Body of Christ, his continuing presence in the world! In gathering, we are demonstrating this unity of the body in a symbolic and actual "communion." There are several ways that this unity is stressed in the gathering. When we sing together, when we say prayers together, when we stand together, when we all sit, etc., we reinforce this union. (More on "unity" at Mass, later) It is in "showing up" at Mass that we are acknowledging our place in Christ's body, and stressing that we all matter.

As a matter of fact, it bears mentioning that our church architecture changed after Vatican II, not because there was a lack of skilled workers, as is often said. Instead, the layout, and décor of Catholic churches changed in order to emphasize this unity of the community gathered, and to clearly symbolize the unity that gathering was intended to foster, among other things. Now, when we gather, we aren't just looking at people's backs. We are doing things together as a single, unified Body of Christ. Each part of that body is important, and it is good for us to see those gathered with us. We can see the gifts and talents of others, acknowledging their presence, and the presence of Christ in them. People aren't just blocking our view of the altar! On the contrary, they are with us in our collective celebration. We are ALL bringing our gifts and talents, and OURSELVES - offering them as part of the sacrifice of the Mass. Joining them with Christ's sacrifice at the altar.

So much more could be said! If there is any aspect of the liturgy that you'd like to know more about, just let me know. Let me, also, take this opportunity to encourage you to join me in participating in the "Catechism in a Year" discussion that will gather on the second and fourth Wednesday evening, or Thursday morning each month. There is still time to join the study. Contact me with any questions that you might have.

► Group Mission Trip

Limited spots are still available for your teen. A non-refundable $50/person deposit is needed immediately. Please make checks out to St. Therese of Lisieux with note "2023 Teen Mission Trip" and bring to the office. For questions call Paul Candela at (810) 523-6818 or email candelas@wowway.com.

Euchre Tournament to support our Teens

Spending a week in Grand Rapids will remind you of why Michigan is called the Great Lake State. Home of the internationally renowned Art Prize, the community is rich in art and culture with sculptures and museums throughout the city. Grand Rapids offers a big city feeling with the warmth of a small town. Even though it's easy to see the beauty of Grand Rapids, the city did not survive the nation's recession untouched. Living in one of the cities hit hardest by the economic problems, the people of Grand Rapids have struggled through failed industries and unemployment. There is a shortage of affordable housing and in comparison, to the other areas in town, there is a lack of investment in the lower income neighborhoods. This summer, teens from our parish will embark on an adventure to do their part in helping the less fortunate in Grand Rapids. Help support these teens by coming to our Euchre Tournament on Saturday, January 21. Tickets are available on our website or in the Parish Office.

Every fault will be magnified and every mistake will be judged by those who want to make a mockery of the faith or of my relationship with Christ. The prophets, John the Baptizer, and even Jesus were derided and criticized because of their ministry; why wouldn't it be the same for me? Paul tells the Corinthians to be holy and that is also our calling: To be holy like Christ. And it takes a lifetime to accomplish. If we truly want to be Christ for others and seek to do the will of God, it will involve effort on our part. It won't be easy, but the process will yield great rewards, perhaps not in this life, but certainly in the life to come.

There are many events planned for the winter. Please look at the bulletin and website for further details.

Have a great week.
