MUSINGS + MESSAGES

👤 Msgr. John Kasza, Moderator ✉ frjohn@stol.church

“Lord, it is good that we are here” is Peter’s response to the transfiguration experience on Mount Tabor. However, most of us will not have experienced the Transfiguration or any kind of surreal moment in our lives. Most of us live a mundane, ordinary, everyday existence. Let’s face it, if they made a TV show about my life, it would probably be cancelled by the second week.

Yet, it is good that we are here— wherever “here” is. Because God is there. So each day should be a transformational moment for us in which we try to see God at work. Wherever we are, there should be room for God, as well.

Every moment of our lives - every breath we take - should be an opportunity to encounter God in some way. But do we recognize God in the everyday? Do we make room for God in our “busy” lives? Although our lives may be boring or repetitive, we should try to discover our Mount Tabors within them. Do we see God in

► How can I make a place for God wherever I am?

Perhaps we were taught as children that the church building was a place to encounter God and that we should go there whenever possible. But as we grew older, some of us drifted from the Church for a variety of reasons and haven't darkened the doors of a church building since. You may have done this or know of someone in your circle of family and friends who has not been to a church service of any kind for years, if not decades.

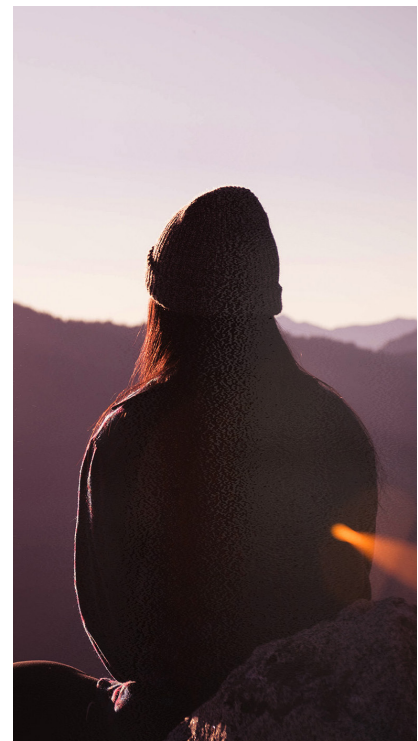

But the church building is not the only place to experience God. Some have found God in creation; others have found God in their service activities. Still, others have found God in music or art. But sadly, some people have chosen NOT to find God. They believe that "God is in the church, but I'm not welcome there, so I'll leave God alone."

As Catholics, we believe that God is present to us in the Mass and especially in the Eucharist. For this reason, we reserve the Blessed Sacrament in the tabernacle. But do we take the time to see God outside of the church building? The truth is, God is everywhere. Do we try to find God when we go to the grocery store, get gas for the car, attend our child's sporting event, or walk the dog? Do we listen to God's voice speak to us through others? Do we challenge ourselves to see God in and around us? Or have we relegated God's place to only the church building?

Today's readings remind us that God is found all around us, but we need to be attentive to his presence by consciously and deliberately making room for God wherever we are. Abram found God in the land of his kinsfolk, in the journey to the new land, and where he eventually settled. The disciples found God on the top of Mount Tabor, as well as down by the Sea of Galilee. Paul found God through his experiences of preaching and even when he was persecuted by others.

God is present and if we allow ourselves the luxury of making room for him, we will be truly blessed. I encourage you during this Lent to make room for God. Allow God to be a part of your daily experiences. Allow God to speak to you through others. Allow God to be a part of your journey in life. And wherever your journey takes you, make a place for God.

our family, our co-workers, store clerks, or restaurant servers? If we don't, we are probably not looking hard enough.

This week, ask the Lord to help you see his presence around you so that you can say alongside of Peter, "Lord, it is good that we are here."

We had a very successful fish fry this past week. Thank you to the Knights, Ladies, and all volunteers for your dedication and hard work. Please continue to join us every Friday during Lent.

We have Stations of the Cross every Friday of Lent at 7 PM. Each week, a different person or group will be the leader. Come join us as we pray the Way of the Cross and immerse ourselves in the journey of Jesus to Calvary.

Have a great week,

"WOMAN, BEHOLD
YOUR SON. SON, BEHOLD YOUR MOTHER."

The 3rd Word - Relationship

Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son." Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.

John 19:25-27

Why did Jesus address Mary as "woman" on the cross?

Some suggest that it was a term of honor and respect. Others believe that by saying "woman" and not "mother," Jesus shows that Mary is not simply his mother, but who Catholics believe to be the Blessed Mother of us all, given to us as Jesus hung on the cross.

In his most agonizing moments, Jesus gives all of us, as his disciples, the gift of his mother. He entrusts us to each other. We can turn to Mary with confidence, knowing that she loves us as a mother and wants nothing more for us than to remain close to her son. We can be assured of her prayers for us and find comfort in her heart, a heart completely full of love for Jesus.

► K of C Fish Fries

The Knights of Columbus Fish Fries began this past Friday, and hopefully many of our parishioners stopped by to get a great fish, shrimp, or mac & cheese dinner.

For the safety of everyone in the busy parking lot, please follow the posted signs and directions of the Knights directing traffic. Entrance to the Fish Fry is restricted to the south entrance, by Msgr. Kasza's house, while the north entrance, by Bickford Assisted Living, will be restricted to those exiting the Fish Fry.

Visit St. Therese each Friday for a great dinner at a reasonable price.

► Fish Fry Delivery for the Homebound

St. Therese of Lisieux will be hosting their annual Fish Fry Dinners. The Fish Fries will be held every Friday from February 24 - March 31. For those parishioners and community members who are home-bound and unable to attend the Fish Fry Dinners, there will be parish and community volunteers delivering the meals starting March 3. The dinners will include Fried or Baked Fish ($13 donation), Fried Shrimp ($13 donation), or Macaroni and Cheese ($7 donation).

If you would like to place an order for a dinner and are homebound, please contact the St. Therese Office Secretary at (586) 254-4433 or Marilyn Cito, Parish Nurse, at (586) 254-4433 Ext. 320 or email Marilync@stol.church prior to the date of the dinner you wish to be delivered. Please make sure you speak with someone to ensure we get your order.

If you are interested in volunteering to drive the meals to the homebound, please contact Marilyn Cito at (586) 254-4433 Ext. 320.

► Women's Capuchin Retreat

God is always ready to encounter you. Are you ready to encounter God? Please join us Friday evening, March 31, through Sunday afternoon, April 2 (ends after Mass and noon meal).

Join other women from St. Therese for a quiet weekend at the Capuchin Retreat House located on 95 acres of beautiful grounds in Washington Twp. Enjoy a private room with a shower and five great meals. The suggested donation is $250. The theme for the 2022-2023 season is "Living the Lord's Prayer." The retreat conference is inspired by scriptural passages, Franciscan Capuchin Tradition, and the reflections of Pope Francis, offering a wonderful opportunity to reflect upon the words and spirituality of the Lord's Prayer so that we dare not only to PRAY, but also to LIVE within this prayer.

Please join us so we may pray with and like Jesus, as well as, rediscover the riches of being God's beloved children. For info or registration, contact: Diane Kuptz (586) 747-3591 or at dkuptz04@comcast.net.

► Priestly Vocations

Dear St. Therese of Lisieux Parish,

As Director of Priestly Vocations, I have the privilege of working with men of all ages to discover if their vocation is to the priesthood. Remember, vocation means a calling from God. God calls each one of us to a particular way of life, whether it is to the priesthood, married life, religious life, or the generous single life. When we choose to follow the vocation that is ours, it is there that we find our meaning and joy. In this way, we find fulfillment and peace doing the work of God.

God gives us our particular vocation because we are his children. Always remember you are a beloved child of God because of Jesus' Passion, Death, and Resurrection. You are loved, and you belong! No one can take that away from you. Our response is to choose to live as a true child of God by growing in virtue and striving to always do Our Heavenly Father's will. Even though every vocation comes with its own cross, we will carry it with joy because Christ carried it first. Jesus doesn't just want us to do good, he wants us to BE good. That only comes by sacrificing ourselves for others as he did.

I am happy as a priest, just as all your priests are as well. I not only invite men to this way of life, but also challenge them to become the man God has called them to be, if this is truly where God is calling. If you are called to the priesthood, then pick up your cross and follow. I promise you will not be disappointed. Whatever stage you are at in the discernment process, please feel free to contact me directly at giera.craig@aod.org. There are no commitments made by contacting me; I'm here to help. Check out our website at www.detroitpriestlyvocations.com and look around at the many resources. Listen to our podcast, "Men of the Hearts," which interviews different priests about their vocation stories. Maybe consider coming to one of our events like the discernment group or discernment weekend at the seminary. You don't have to figure this out alone.

For the rest of us that already know our vocation, let's recommit ourselves to living it out to the fullest. Also, please pray that more men say "yes" to their vocation to

► Walking the Path

Discipleship Formation | 👤 Peggy Casing, D.F. Director 📧 peggyc@stol.church

Last week, I wrote about the process of seeing God's presence in our daily lives and discerning God's will for us, as well. As a continuation of our conversation on discernment, I'd like to take a moment to reflect on a great process for making bigger decisions. For many of us, decision-making isn't all that difficult. For others, it can be fraught with worry and self-doubt. It doesn't matter what kind of "decider" you are, each of us can benefit from having a process to use. A process adds structure and surety, which assures a greater level of assurance that your decision is the best that could be made, regardless of the circumstances or outcome.

Here is the process in a nutshell:

1. Ask the Holy Spirit for help.
Taking our concerns to prayer is always a good idea. Remember if we have a thought that occurs to us, and it is aligned purely with love for others, or truth, you can count on that being the Spirit who is inspiring that thought.

2. Think about God's law and the teachings of the Church. If your choice is contrary to the teachings of Jesus, how good could it be?
3. Think about what will happen as a result of your choice. Ask yourself, will the consequences be pleasing to God? Will my choice hurt someone else?
4. Seek advice from someone you respect and remember that Jesus is with you. If the decision is related to healthcare, ask doctors or other healthcare providers. If it is financial, ask a financial planner. Remember, it is always good when we bring our faith into our daily lives, and when our daily lives are infused with attitudes and values that are drawn from our faith.

5. Ask yourself how your choice will affect your relationships with God and others. To state the obvious, love is always the answer.

As the folks from Loyola Press have shared, "Making moral choices takes into consideration the object of the choice, our intention in making the choice, and the circumstances in which the choice is made. It is never right to make an evil choice in the hope of gaining something good."

Hopefully this process will come to mind the next time you have a big choice to make!

the priesthood in the Archdiocese of Detroit. At the Holy Thursday Chrism Mass, Archbishop Vigneron announced that the Archdiocese of Detroit will engage in a Year of Prayer for Priestly Vocations beginning on June 4 (the Vigil of Pentecost) and concluding on May 28, 2023 (the Solemnity of Pentecost). This Year of Prayer will be a time for everyone in the Archdiocese — priests, deacons, religious, and laity — to come to understand and embrace our need to be united in prayer, working toward a culture that fosters and celebrates vocations to the priesthood. Offer up your Rosaries, especially the Luminous Mysteries, for this purpose. There are many resources on our landing page at prayforvocations.com. Our Mother in Heaven will help raise up a new generation of priests with our prayers! Pray and invite young men to this wonderful vocation. Thank you again for your hospitality.
