Merry Christmas!

Yes, we are still in the Christmas season, and today, we celebrate Holy Family Sunday. Today's feast is a reminder that every family is called to be holy in imitation of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. The Holy Family provides a model for how we should act, whether we are a family of one or twenty, a biological family or an adoptive one, a created family, or a blended family. If we are in a familial situation, we are called to be holy.

As Paul's letter to the Colossians tells us, "Put on...compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another...and over all these put on love."

As we enter the New Year, may each of us strive to put Paul's words into practice—not just in our families but in our schools and workplaces, churches and social gathering spaces, and sporting arenas and shopping centers. May ► What elements make up a good Christian family?

Celebrating the Feast of the Holy Family this Christmas season is an excellent time to reflect on what makes a Christian family truly special. While we all strive for the perfect family, we know that operating as one can have its challenges, just as the Holy Family of Mary, Joseph, and Jesus had.

Life for the Holy family was far from perfect. Mary and Joseph were exiled and faced financial hardships and the daunting task of raising Jesus. This reality teaches us that every family, regardless of its struggles or imperfections, has the potential to be holy. The emphasis should not be on achieving a flawless family life but on nurturing love, understanding, and faith amidst the challenges. Today, Christian families come in all forms: extended, re-married, blended, and single-parent households. Each has its unique qualities and set of challenges. What unites them is not their composition but their pursuit of holiness. A holy family is one where its members love and support each other, uphold Christian values, and grow together in faith. This inclusivity reflects the essence of Christianity, where love and acceptance are paramount.

As we celebrate Christmas, let's remember that the Holy Family, with all its human challenges, is a model for us—not because they were perfect but because they remained committed to each other and God in the face of difficulties. Every family's unique composition and challenges are called to this same holiness. In embracing our imperfections and striving for love and unity, we honor the true spirit of a Christian family.

► Breakfast With St. Nick Photos

Our “Breakfast with St. Nick” event was a heartwarming and joyous occasion that brought together hundreds from our parish community. Attendees were treated to a breakfast which was prepared and served by our Knights of Columbus setting the stage for a day filled with festive cheer. The event featured an array of engaging activities, including fun games and creative crafts that captivated both the young and the young at heart. A highlight for many was the opportunity to take photos with St. Nick, creating lasting memories. The warm smiles and laughter echoing throughout the event were a testament to its success, embodying the spirit of togetherness and holiday joy that our church community cherishes.

MISSING OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

Due to an error by our offertory envelope distributor, your mailed packet is missing this envelope for the weekend of Jan. 7. You may either place your checks in the basket (with your envelope number in the memo line) or take an envelope when you arrive.

Faithful Resolutions

Many of us try to make resolutions at the beginning of a new year: a healthier diet, an exercise program, spending more quality time with family, less alcohol consumption, stopping smoking, etc. The list goes on. If you are reading this, you probably consider yourself to be a faithful person. One resolution we can all work on is building our relationship with the Lord. There is no better time than right now to do just that! In the next few weeks, we will discuss resolutions you can make that will help you build upon your relationship with God.

Of course, there are many methods to help us. One is to make more time for spiritual reading. There are countless books written by Catholic Saints, Bishops, Priests, and well-studied theologian lay people. Audiobooks might be a good fit if you have a long drive to work. There are many daily prayer apps for which you can sign up, as well as YouTube videos. And, of course, there is the Bible, along with many programs that can help you understand and explain your readings.

Next week, look for more faithful resolutions.

Happy New Year from the Evangelization Commission.

Happy New Year! As you know from past bulletins, I don't give up my "usual space" very often. However, at this time of year, when making resolutions is a "thing," and some great opportunities are just beginning, I want to make sure that you know about two options from Ascension Press. I have participated in both of these studies and know many people who have also done so. I don't know a single person who regrets taking the time and making the effort. We have all found them to be real blessings on our faith journeys. I urge you to consider one of these for your New Year's resolution:

► 2023 Health Ministry Wrap-Up

Health Ministry | 👤 Marilyn Cito, Parish Nurse ✉ marilync@stol.church

During the Christmas season, I always reflect on the year and the blessings God has bestowed upon us.

Although Christmas is usually a time for fun-filled celebrations, it is important to remember that it also might be a time of sadness and loneliness. Hosting Grief Support groups at St. Therese over the last few years has taught me that there are no “time limits” for those who have suffered a loss, even though others may think sufficient time has passed. We must respect grief as a journey for each person, and the holidays may be difficult for them.

It is important to keep our parishioners, community, and world in our prayers and support those suffering physically or mentally. The St. Therese of Lisieux Health Ministry is here to help you. Please reach out to a Health Ministry member or the Parish Office if you need help or support.

St. Therese of Lisieux Health Ministry members have been busy with our “usual” activities, but we have added exciting new programs! As we do at the end of the year, I would like to share some of the Health Ministry’s highlights from 2023:

- Our Medical Lending Closet served over 200 parishioners, providing briefs and durable medical equipment like wheelchairs, shower chairs, commodes, and protein supplements at no cost to our community.
- The Health Ministry provided 20 programs totaling 36 education hours throughout the year. Over 642 people attended these programs featuring new topics like Advance Directives, Hospice/Palliative Care, Driver Safety, Dental Care, Gift of Life, Crime Prevention and Fraud Victimization, Elder Law, Medicare and Medicare Supplements, Alzheimer’s Disease and Dementia, and Pre-Planning Funerals.
- We provided 3 CPR and AED courses.
- We hosted two flu vaccine events (including a drive-through), with 64 people attending.
- We hosted informational/educational tables for parishioners after Masses.
- The Grief Ministry, facilitated by Marilyn Kylmala, sent sympathy and Christmas cards to people who had lost a loved one and hosted a Memorial Mass attended by 74 families.
- Heidi Boccomino, Health Ministry member and social worker, facilitated our “Hope for the Holidays” workshop.
- We hosted three 9-week Grief Support groups for parishioners and the community; Donna Hagg, Paula Breitschuh, and Sr. Mary Andrew helped facilitate these groups.
- Sue Verellen and Donna Ludwig facilitated two widow/widower social groups.
- Sue Verellen and other Health Ministry members provided over 240 hours of respite care, visits, phone calls, and texts to parishioners.
- We hosted five blood drives this year and collected 110 units of blood from these events.
- Meals from the Heart, led by Mickey Wilson, served meals to parishioners who were ill or who had surgery.
- Health Ministry members, in collaboration with the administrative staff, reviewed and revised the St. Therese of Lisieux Parish Emergency Preparedness Plan (PRES).
- Health Ministry members wrote educational articles for the church bulletin each week.

This list does not include all the countless hours and activities the St. Therese of Lisieux Health Ministry participated in. None of these efforts would be possible without the help of our 49 members who selflessly donate their talents, time, and energy. Not everyone in the Health Ministry is a healthcare worker, but each person contributes in their own way to make our ministry successful. We are looking for additional members! If you are interested in joining, please contact Marilyn Cito.

I feel blessed to work with our ministry members, Monsignor Kasza, and the St. Therese of Lisieux administration, staff, ministries, volunteers, and parishioners. It is a privilege to be one of your St. Therese of Lisieux parish nurses.

God Bless You and Merry Christmas!
Marilyn Cito, Parish Nurse

► Consecration to the Holy Family

Paul Bieber

Sunday, Dec. 31st, is the feast day of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. On this day, at all the Masses, the Knights of Columbus will distribute “Family Fully Alive” books and prayer cards with a prayer for consecration to the Holy Family.

The “Family Fully Alive” book helps parents strengthen their family by providing monthly themes, prayers, reflections, meditations, scripture readings, and family projects. They will help make your home, or “domestic church,” a place of faith, hope, and charity, where each member will grow with grace toward full potential in God.

To help families live out the joy of Christ, K of C Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William Lori composed a prayer through which families can come together to consecrate themselves under the protection of the Holy Family. In this prayer on the back of the card, we ask for the intercession of the perfect son, Jesus, Mary the perfect Mother, and Joseph, the model for every father. We offer our family to Christ and ask Him to help us imitate the Holy Family so we can all enter Heaven as a family, and we ask Mary and Joseph to pray for us. To help your family grow in holiness, say this prayer together on the Feast of the Holy Family or on your family’s “birthday”- your wedding anniversary.

Please ensure you get one of these booklets and prayer cards from the Knights in the Gathering Space and use them to transform your family into a “domestic church.” Start with the January section on “prayer,” which helps put first things first by cultivating a relationship with God together through prayer.

Copies will also be available in the kiosk in the Gathering Space if you did not attend one of these Masses.
