HOW CAN I
APPROACH SOMEONE WHO doesn't believe?

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Fr. Chris Talbot - St. Francis / St. Maximilian 📧 frchris@sfsm.church

In the Gospel this week, Thomas does not believe the other Apostles' proclamation of the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus. We tend to put the blame for his disbelief solely on the shoulders of poor "Doubting Thomas" himself. Shouldn't some, if not most, of that burden fall on the other Apostles?

After all, their proclamation of the Resurrection did little to inspire Thomas to believe. Contrast that to the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, where "With great power, the Apostles bore witness to the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus" inspires the community to be of one heart and mind in their belief.

So, what's the difference?

The difference lies in the living out of their witness. Their telling Thomas about Jesus was not supported by a change in their actions. They were still locked in a room and afraid. As the old saying goes, actions speak louder than

words. In the readings, the believing community led by the Apostles boldly lived out God's command to love our neighbors as ourselves in how they treated each other by providing for everyone's needs. The way they lived gave power to their words and inspired others to believe. They "talked the talk" and "walked the walk."

First and foremost, we must approach people who don't believe in our actions. We need to lead with mercy, as Pope Francis often says. We need to treat them with kindness and generosity—making friends. Then, we have to be true and faithful friends to them, laying down our lives for them. Only then can we effectively bring those friends to Christ.

A huge part of bringing those friends to believe in the Living Christ is prayer. Before we talk to our friends about Jesus, we need to talk to Jesus about our friends. Some of the most powerful words you can use with someone who doesn't believe are "I'll pray for you," "I am praying for you," and, when you feel they're ready, "Can I pray with you?" Even if your friends seem to react badly to your prayers for them, don't give up on them or get offended. Just remain faithful, continuing to lift them up to Jesus.

If we live authentically in the love of Jesus every day, people around us will begin to ask why we are so different. If they are not asking, we need to look again at how we are living (or not living) our own faith. When the questions come, we must be genuine and humble. We don't have to know everything; we just have to help our friends find the answers they are looking for. We simply have to walk with them as friends in Jesus.

The Story of Divine Mercy Sunday

The celebration of Christ's resurrection continues on the Second Sunday of Easter with Divine Mercy Sunday, recognizing that God's love and mercy endure forever and overcome any sin that separates us from him. In the 1930's, Jesus appeared to St. Faustina Kowalska and directed her to promote his divine mercy worldwide. The Vatican decreed Divine Mercy Sunday on May 1, 2000, just five days after St. John Paul II canonized St. Faustina, who recorded her visions of the risen Lord with two rays of light and the words "Jesus, I trust in you." St. Faustina, a poorly educated daughter of a humble Polish family, kept a 600-page diary of the apparitions that she claimed continued for years. Her entries focus on God's mercy, the call to accept mercy and be merciful, the need for conversion, and the call to trust in Jesus. It had been Jesus' wish, she wrote, to establish a feast day: "I [Jesus] desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls... I am giving them the last hope of salvation; that is, the Feast of My Mercy."

We celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday with its novena, the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy (a series of prayers organized similarly to a rosary), the Hour of Great Mercy (a time of prayer traditionally celebrated at 3 PM), and the plenary indulgence, granted to those who receive the Eucharist and celebrate reconciliation on Divine Mercy Sunday. The celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday is an opportunity to reflect on how God's mercy can overcome sin and face the difficulties and trials of life.

Easter Egg Hunt

Families gathered for fun and fellowship at St. Therese of Lisieux's annual Easter Egg Hunt and Bunny Breakfast on March 23, 2024. Children enjoyed a visit with the Easter Bunny and live bunnies and chickens! The morning also featured games, face painting, and a marshmallow paint craft. Thanks to our Knights of Columbus for providing a delicious pancake breakfast.

First Eucharist Students Would Love Your Prayers

Many of our children will be celebrating their First Eucharist at a special liturgy on May 4, 2024, at 11 AM. Please keep them in your prayers.

Dear Jesus,
Bless the children who are coming forward to receive your Holy Eucharist for the first time. May they grow in their relationship with you, desiring to receive the sacrament often. Allow them to feel the assurance of your love for them, so they turn to you for comfort, guidance, and wisdom from this day forward. Amen.

Good News from Grow

Our formation program for children in grades 1-6 is called "Grow" since we are helping children grow in their faith.

Children in our GROW Catechism Program, grades 1-6, focused on Holy Week and Jesus' Passion during class on March 18/19, 2024. Cora Haupt takes her turn carrying a wooden cross and wearing a crown of thorns during discussion of Good Friday.

Women of Faith Discussion Group

Feel free to join us for a woman's faith sharing group focused around discussion of the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults. We pray, discuss about ten pages of text, and then end by sharing our own prayer intentions. There isn't much homework. Our focus is on prayer, fellowship and learning just a bit about the faith. Our next gathering will be on April 25, 2024 from 9:30 - 10:30 AM. Contact Peggy Casing for more information.

► Walking Exercise Tips

Health Ministry | 👤 Marilyn Cito, Parish Nurse 📧 marilync@stol.church

As the weather gets nicer, more people will be out walking. I always love seeing my neighbors and talking with them after the winter months. This time not only includes good conversations, but walking together with the goal of trying to achieve a healthier lifestyle. So, I thought this might be a good time to share a few tips if you plan to start walking!

- Wearing good shoes is very important. Look for a shoe with a well-padded heel that is light, breathable, and water-resistant. Look at the bottom of the shoes to make sure the soles are not slippery, since the ground is often wet in spots. A running shoe might work just as well as a walking shoe. Make sure your shoes fit well and are not too loose, or they will not provide the support you need. Likewise, shoes that are too tight can rub your foot or toes and cause calluses or corns. Shoes should feel comfortable when walking, roomy enough to wiggle your toes, but snug enough to keep your foot from sliding around. Purchase new shoes in the afternoon so your feet are slightly swollen so you get a good sense of your true size.
- It is also important to wear loose, comfortable, and breathable clothes. Wear thin layers of clothing so you can remove a layer, if warm. Wear a hat, sunglasses, and sunscreen if it's sunny out. It is also a good idea to wear bright colors and/or reflective clothing if walking in the evening or early morning.
- In an effort not to get bored and lose interest in walking, don't walk the same route each day. If you are able to switch up your route, that's better. Not only will the different route keep you interested, it will strengthen your muscles and joints if you can go up and down some hills.
- If you are going for a long walk or it's warm out, bring a bottle of water to stay hydrated. It is not necessary to drink liquids with electrolytes or sugar.
- Many walkers and runners wear headphones to listen to music. If that is something you like to do, buy headphones that let you hear what is going on around you, like passing cars, sirens, barking dogs, or even others who might be near you.
- Although this may not seem like a problem to some, do not look at your phone and walk at the same time. You might trip over a sidewalk or even step into traffic. Pedestrian injuries linked to phone usage has more than doubled since 2004, and most walkers (60%) were distracted by their phones. If you get a call or need to make a call, take a break and use the phone. This is not to say that you should not bring your phone with you. You can use it to track steps and location, as well as provide a map should you need it, and most importantly, can be used in an emergency situation.
- If you find you are bored when walking, consider asking a friend or neighbor, or bring your dog with you! Pets love to go on walks! This is also a great time to pray, meditate, practice breathing, or practice mindfulness if you are alone.
- Finally, it is important to use good posture when walking. Stand up straight, keep your eyes forward, your shoulders down, back and relaxed. Swing your arms naturally and freely as you step your feet lightly from the heel to the toe. Make sure you give your leg muscles a gentle stretch (10-20 seconds) when you are done with your walk. This will help you keep flexible. Feel free to hold on to a chair or wall to help with your balance when stretching.

I hope these tips are useful should you decide to start a walking regimen. As we get older, sometimes it's hard to get motivated to start something new, but you feel healthier, stronger, and more flexible, and you might even lose a few pounds!

Teen Mission Trip— Trailer Needed

Do you or someone you know have a small trailer (- 5' x 10' with sides) that the teen mission trip group can use from Jul. 21 to 27 to transport tools and luggage? If so, please contact Paul Candela at (810) 523-6818 or candelas@wowway.com. Thank you!

► Thanks from the Knights of Columbus

The Knights of Columbus served its last Fish Fry dinner for this year, and we wish to express our gratitude to the volunteers who worked hard to make it a success and to our customers who enjoyed the food that we prepared.

There was no shortage of work to be done: you helped to prepare fish on Thursday evenings, set the tables and prepare condiments on Friday mornings after Mass, greet and serve our customers on Friday evenings, and much more. Records were set this year for the number of dinners prepared and served each week and it would not have happened without your hard work and smiles. The teens, and their parents, who helped clear/reset tables and serve beverages, were awesome. The Knights would like to thank all of you for your participation.

We would also like to thank all who came to enjoy the best Fish Fry in Shelby Township. Without your patronage and spreading the word about our fish fry, we would not have had the record sales we experienced. Thank you for your support and we look forward to serving you again next year.

Thank you, St. Therese of Lisieux Parish and Msgr. Kasza for the support that you provide the Knights of Columbus in making these events happen.
