MUSINGS + MESSAGES

👤 Msgr. John Kasza, Moderator ✉ frjohn@stol.church

Today, we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension of our Lord, which marks the end of the earthly ministry of Jesus Christ. While he is no longer physically present to his disciples, they still perceive his spiritual presence and remember what he said and did during his time among them. His final commandment to his disciples, to “proclaim the gospel to every creature,” is also given to us. In our Family of Parishes, aptly named “Disciples Unleashed,” we strive to proclaim the Gospel message in various ways—in worship, education and formation, Christian service and charity, engagement, and family ministries.

The Gospel is not one-dimensional; it is multi-faceted and expressed in many ways. Indeed, we proclaim the Gospel formally through homilies and catechetical presentations, but it is also proclaimed informally by acts of kindness, charity, and service. The Gospel is also exercised when we have fun at concerts,

► What do I need to continue my Mission for Christ?

The Ascension marked a major decision point in the lives of Christ's Disciples. As Jesus was taken up into heaven, they had to decide to face any fears or apprehensions head-on and forge ahead without their fearless team leader by their side. Although Christ shared the groundwork and elements needed for their ongoing Mission to spread the Gospel, the goal has yet to be fully realized.

The entrance antiphon we sing for the celebration of Ascension calls us to focused action: "Men of Galilee, why sit and wonder at the heavens? This Jesus whom you saw ascending into heaven will return as you saw Him go. Alleluia, Alleluia!"

Continuing this Mission with focused action is not Mission: Impossible. With the right tools, determination, tenacity, and faith, we, too, can use our God-given gifts and talents to spread the Gospel. The following list includes specific tools to ponder on our Mission for Christ.

Clear Objective: Draw others to Christ.

Intel: The Devil is constantly hacking away at our plans. He gets into our psyches through the smallest details, even causing us to question ourselves, our worth, and our abilities. Be aware of him and constantly be ready to thwart his efforts to draw us away from our Mission.

Team: Assemble and associate with a trustworthy group of co-workers who have diverse skills and talents. That's Church! There is power in the Body of Christ!

Equipment (Provisions): Our best nourishment is the celebration of Mass, where we are fed spiritual food for the journey in Word and Sacrament. Through prayer and worship, we gain more acute powers of surveillance and navigation, as well as communication tools to overcome obstacles, including complacency and sin.

Training: Take advantage of opportunities for continuing education to be adequately trained and up-to-date with the latest techniques, mastering specialized skills for sharing the love of Christ in various daily scenarios.

Plan: God calls us to be different things for different people at different times. He gives us what we need. Pray that God's plan unfolds within you fully as a Disciple Unleashed. Stealth & Disguise: Never use an in-your-face approach; always maintain a low profile of genuine care and humility, which goes a long way toward furthering the Mission of love.

Timing: Vigilant readiness, awareness, and focused attention are crucial for seizing the moment of opportunity. Strike (gently) in moments of need when vulnerability can work in your favor.

Execution: Do and say everything with love.

Each of us is called to live the Gospel in different ways. Personally, I need the unconditional love of my immediate family to continue my vocation in serving the people of St. Isidore. God has called me to use the gifts and talents he has crafted in me

DISCIPLESHIP FORMATION

► Mission Minute

GROW Program Updates

As we move toward Pentecost, students in grades 1-6 discussed the importance of Jesus' examples of sacrifice and love. Lessons focused on the fact that we can follow Jesus' example by doing small acts of kindness for others. Children also discussed the importance of personal space and respecting one another.

Confirmation at St. Therese

Next Sunday, May 19, forty teens will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation here at St. Therese.

Did you know this sacrament is one of the three sacraments of Christian Initiation?

In the Roman Rite, the bishop extends his hands and invokes the Holy Spirit with this prayer:

"All-powerful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
by water and the Holy Spirit
you freed your sons and daughters from sin
and gave them new life.
Send your Holy Spirit upon them to be their helper and guide. Give them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgment and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence. Fill them with the spirit of wonder and awe in your presence. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen." CCC 1299

Through the Sacrament of Confirmation, we receive a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit as once granted to the apostles on the day of Pentecost. Through this sacrament, we are more deeply united to the Holy Trinity, the gifts of the Holy Spirit are strengthened, our bond with the church is made more perfect, and it gives us the strength to spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ, to confess the name of Christ boldly, and never be ashamed of the Cross. (CCC 1303)

Let us pray for all who will be Confirmed this Easter Season.

May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give us a Spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him.

► Musings + Messages (cont'd)

trivia nights, and family festivals. Whenever we gather to celebrate our faith and friendship as Christian men and women, the Gospel is realized, and Jesus is made present.

I encourage you to participate in the many summer events throughout our Family of Parishes and around the Archdiocese of Detroit. Take advantage of the opportunity to exercise your faith and share your experience of the Risen Lord.

thus far for his glorification and the Sanctification of his people. Revisiting that call periodically is essential in adapting to life's ever-changing circumstances.

By virtue of our Baptisms, we are all called to our Mission for Christ. May our Mission not be inhibited by what we lack, but enhanced by the power of Christ within us. There is no Mission: Impossible with God.
