MUSINGS + MESSAGES

👤 Msgr. John Kazsa, Moderator 📧 frjohn@stol.church

Today's Gospel passage comes from the beginning of Mark's account of Jesus' ministry and relates how he spoke to the people in parables. Time and again, he wanted to impress upon his hearers that the Kingdom of God was not like the Roman Empire or the Kingdom of Israel under David. Instead, God's kingdom is inclusive rather than exclusive; it is all-encompassing, and everyone is invited to be a part of it. But the Kingdom of God is also a mystery. Things happen without people even realizing it because God's ways are not the ways of human beings.

This is why Paul's second letter to the Corinthians is so important. It is often chosen to be read at funerals. As Paul says, we walk by faith and not by sight. We are called to trust in the Lord and accept God's will based on our faith rather than human perception or scientific fact. Some things simply cannot be explained, yet we know them to be true and holy.

While here on earth, our task is to please God in all things and invite others to experience the goodness

► What “mustard seed” moment transformed me?

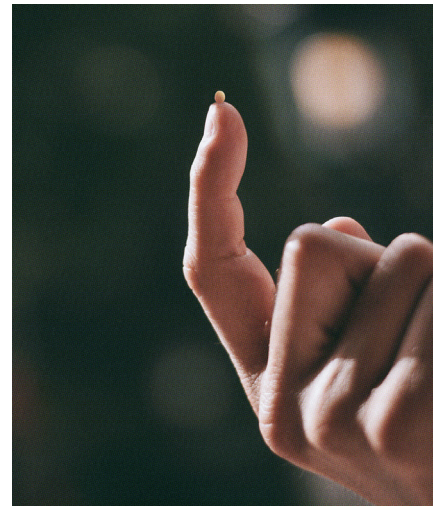

Who you are today is the result of the many people who have shaped you—parents, friends, mentors, etc. While these countless individuals have influenced you, sometimes a small, singular moment or opportunity stands out as pivotal.

In this Sunday’s Gospel, we hear the parable of the mustard seed: “When it is sown in the ground, it is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches.”

I remember my “mustard seed” moment. In 8th grade, my music teacher, recognizing my musical talent, invited me to play the piano at school Masses. She mentored me and also allowed me to substitute during weekend Masses. As a 14-year-old, I was honored, and my confidence soared because of her trust in me. Without her encouragement, I might not have pursued a path in music, leading to degrees and a career in the field. This small “mustard seed” moment transformed my life, helping me to “spring up” and extend my branches into the music and church worlds.

Now, I think about how crazy it sounds to hire a 14-year-old for a professional role, but someone gave me that opportunity. If I see potential, talent, and heart in another young person, I need to remember to provide them with the same chance I was given.

What was that moment, or who was that person for you? It’s important to reflect on those who have provided opportunities because remembering them can inspire us to give others their own “mustard seed” moments.

► Musings + Messages (cont’d)

of the Lord. When things are difficult, we rely on our faith and God’s promise to be with us always, knowing that, eventually, things will turn around and get better.

This week, ask the Lord to assist you in having a deeper faith. Invite the Lord into your heart so that you can be an instrument of spreading the Good News.

Happy Father’s Day to all men who serve in a paternal capacity. May God continue to bless you for all of your love and service in assisting people to grow and thrive as God’s children.

Thank you for all of your kind birthday and anniversary wishes last week.

► Spotlight Interview with Our Deacon Intern, Mark Sienkowski

Tell us about yourself!

I've always had faith and an intellectual interest in God. I grew up 1 of 11 kids in a Catholic family and graduated from the U of M with studies in math, science, and physics. Then, I married my high school girlfriend, Carol. We are now married 40 years and have three children and four grandchildren. My jobs were working in computer science and then as a solutions architect. As of Jun. 4, I am now retired.

What are some of your favorite books?

In the early 80s, I started reading books by Catholic authors. One of my top five books is Orthodoxy by G.K. Chesterton. The story is about an adventurer (the author) who searches for wonder and understanding in his life. In the end, he realized that what he was looking for was already there all along. This is a lot like a faith journey. It often takes you full circle.

Another one of my favorite writings is our Archbishop's pastoral letter, Unleash the Gospel. It came out at the right time for me. It calls for a new outpouring of the Holy Spirit to transform our diocese. My calling to the diaconate is a result of this movement.

Who is your favorite saint?

St. Mary Magdalene is my favorite saint. She was always there—at Jesus' feet, at the cross, and always present, listening quietly to what God wanted her to do. She taught me to be humble, be with God, and just listen.

What is your favorite prayer?

One prayer that speaks to me is Thomas Merton's Prayer of Abandonment.

<https://mycatholicprayers.com/prayers/prayer-of-trust-by-thomas-merton/>

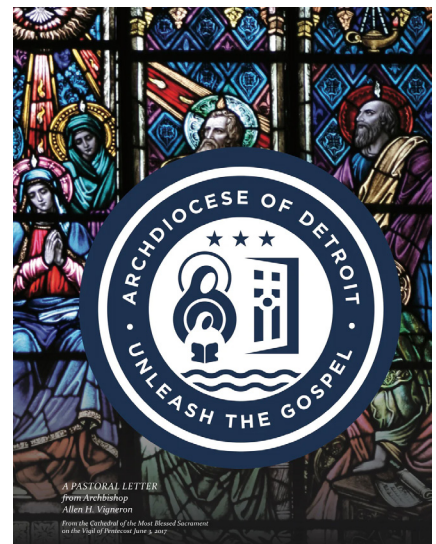

What motivated you to be where you are today?

After our children grew up, my personal relationship with the Holy Spirit grew. In 2015, I went to an Apologetics conference at St. Cyril, learned about St. Paul Street Evangelization, picked up a brochure, and dove into training online with 25 joy-filled people from all over the country through the AOD (Archdiocese of Detroit). I had never experienced faith this way. I was able to help people encounter God without debates or obstacles.

My eyes were opened. I found my connection by praying to the Holy Spirit and attending events such as ALPHA. I also began to share my faith more at work.

Do you have anything else you would like to share?

Lastly, I would like to share an approach to evangelization. God has put this on my heart: "If you really want to know me, you have to share me."

Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist

When was the last time you sat down to enjoy a meal with your family or close friends—not just to eat food in close proximity to each other, but to bask in each other's presence and grow in love for one another? For most of us, this doesn't happen at a typical meal. However, this is the kind of meal God wants to share with us. This is the kind of meal he has prepared for us and invites us to participate in through the Sacrament of the Eucharist.

Jesus' Summer Bucket List

My Child,

I'm so excited Summer time is here! I love to watch you play and have fun. Did you know I like summer time, too? I would really like to hang out with you and have some fun this summer. In fact, I have a bucket full of ideas for us to do. I call it my summer bucket list.

Come to Mass each week and I will have the priest reach into my bucket and announce what I would like to do with you that week! When you leave Mass today, pick up a picture of my summer bucket at the table in the gathering space. Starting next week, I will have stickers at the table. If you had the chance to complete one of my bucket list ideas, put the sticker on my summer bucket picture. I hope the bucket will be covered with stickers by the end of summer! I'm really looking forward to spending time with you this summer!

► St. Therese of Lisieux Mother's Day Tea

Health Ministry | 👤 Marilyn Cito, Parish Nurse ✉ marilync@stol.church

I just wanted to express my gratitude to everyone who participated in the Mother's Day Tea on May 7. All had a great evening!

104 women attended the event, not including the St. Therese Health Ministry members, eight hospitality team members, and eight Austin Catholic High School students, who volunteered tirelessly.

The event was planned by the St. Therese Health Ministry, who did a fabulous job of coordinating it as well. Mickey Wilson and the Hospitality team decorated the Social Hall and orchestrated the event—from washing all of the teacups and pots to decorating the tables, setting up the food and desserts, and putting everything away!

We had four wonderful speakers, Sr. Mary Andrew, Peggy Casing, Paula Brietschuh, RN, and Kimberly Foster, RN, who shared prayers, biblical stories, the history of tea, and self-care information. The highlight of the evening was the spontaneous stories shared by women in attendance about their mothers and the women in their lives!

Various teas were served, as well as a delicious dinner of chicken salad croissants, salad, and desserts provided by the Bountiful Bakers.

A huge thank you to everyone! From the women who attended this fantastic event to the St. Therese Health Ministry, Hospitality Ministry, Bountiful Bakers, volunteers, Austin High School students, speakers, St. Therese of Lisieux administrative staff, facility staff, and all of the parishioners who donated teacups, teapots, tea, food, and other items, thank you! The donated vintage teacups and teapots were lovely and will be used at future events to make new memories and carry on the tradition of sharing tea with special people! If I am remiss in mentioning someone who contributed to this event, thank you from the bottom of my heart!

A Catholic Practice for a Cleaner Environment

👤 Evangelization Committee

Some of us recall the Catholic practice of abstaining from meat every Friday. Most of us continue this practice, at least during Lent, as a reminder of what Christ did for us. Continuing this habit throughout the year could bring significant environmental benefits.

The less meat we consume, the less slaughterhouse pollution we generate, and we reduce greenhouse gas emissions. In addition, we convert less of our beautiful landscapes into pastures. These are just a few of the many benefits. It is worth the research and discussion to see how limiting the amount of meat we consume can help our environment.

*Pope Francis reminds us that "The primary mission of the church is to evangelize."
