HOW IS CHRIST CALLING ME TO HONOR MY COMMITMENTS MORE COMPLETELY?

MUSINGS + MESSAGES

👤 Msgr. Kasza, Moderator ✉ frjohn@stol.church

What makes a good partnership? It depends on whom you ask. Some say like-minded people can be good partners; others say those who have opposite personalities (and thereby complement each other) are the best partners to have. But what does scripture teach us about being partners in life and love?

At first, God made animals for the man so he would not be alone. While the animals provided companionship, none proved to be suitable as a partner. So, God went back to the drawing board, so to speak, and created a woman. As the man says, "This one is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh." In other words, a good partner is like us yet complements us. Moreover, a good partner does not always agree with us but instead offers alternative viewpoints that help us clarify our own belief system. Someone who partners with us wants us to become better at who we are and, in the process, helps

▶ How is Christ calling me to honor my commitments more completely?

Christ calls you to honor your commitments more completely by inviting you to reflect his character of faithfulness, integrity, and love in all aspects of your life. Through his teachings and example, Jesus demonstrates what it means to be truly committed—both to God and others. Here are a few major ways he may be calling you to honor your commitments more fully:

1. Faithfulness in All Things

Jesus calls you to be faithful, even in the small things. Luke 16:10 says, “The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones.” In other words, honoring your commitments isn’t just about big promises but also everyday tasks and responsibilities. Christ calls you to follow through on your word, fulfilling all promises and duties with integrity. Whether they’re commitments to work, family, friends, or church, your faithfulness reflects your trustworthiness as a follower of Christ.

2. Reflecting Love in Your Commitments

At the heart of Jesus’ teaching is the command to love God and others. When it comes to honoring commitments, Christ invites you to see them as opportunities to serve others in love. Rather than viewing commitments as burdens or obligations, you can approach them as acts of love and care for those around you. In your personal relationships, your work, and your community, fully committing yourself reflects Christ’s selfless love.

3. Perseverance and Sacrifice

Honoring commitments is often challenging, especially when it requires sacrifice. Jesus himself is the ultimate example of commitment, persevering even to the point of death on the cross. When your commitments become difficult or inconvenient, Christ calls you to persevere, trusting that his strength is sufficient for you. Following through on difficult promises is an act of faith and an opportunity to grow spiritually.

4. Embracing Grace and Forgiveness

Finally, Christ calls you to honor your commitments with grace. There will be times when you fall short, but Christ offers forgiveness and the chance to begin again. By embracing his grace, you can move forward, honoring your commitments with renewed strength and purpose.

Ultimately, Christ calls you to honor your commitments more completely by living with integrity, serving others with love, and depending on his grace and strength.

themselves become better, as well.

Think of the various partnerships over the years: The Beatles, Jobs and Wozniak, Torvill and Dean, Watson and Crick, Laurel and Hardy, to name a few. When you read their stories, you realize that different people came together to create something innovative. They had a common goal but very different perspectives on life. They didn't always agree, but they recognized that the result was the reason for their partnership, and that's what mattered.

What is the goal of our existence? Those with whom we partner, whether as friends, colleagues, or spouses, are fellow travelers on the journey to achieve that final goal. They assist us in becoming the person God has called us to be. Instead of seeing others as adversaries in our lives, view them as potential partners to enable the achievement of heaven's glory.

10 Surprising Things that Happen When You Go to Adoration More Often - Part 1

👤 Evangelization Committee

On Thursday, October 17 at 7 PM, St. Therese is hosting an Encountering Christ evening titled "A Deeper Step into Adoration."

Throughout October, excerpts from the CatholicLink.org article "10 Surprising Things That Happen When You Go To Adoration More Often" will be featured in the bulletin. These insightful excerpts are designed to enrich your understanding and experience of Adoration.

Finding time to go to Adoration can be difficult. But if you can make it happen, committing to regular Adoration with an open heart can have some surprising results.

In today's culture, the idea of interior progress is drastically undervalued; many times, it's considered a waste of time or something from our naïve ancestors. Usually, only exterior and more palpable progress is worth anything. The main difference between the two (material and spiritual) is that material progress remains outside of you. It will offer you certain positive sensations, yet it is always colored with a fleeting and inconsistent kind of occurrence. Interior progress, on the other hand, means you are the one who is changed.

Keep an eye on our upcoming articles over the next three weeks to discover the ten surprising ways that spending time in Adoration may impact you.

DISCIPLESHIP FORMATION

Can you help us once per month on Sundays?

We are still in need of help for Children's Church. This is the program where children are dismissed at the beginning of Mass, and go to another room to hear the readings in a more kid-friendly way. Volunteers read the readings to the children, and then talk about them. Materials and guidance are provided, so there's no worry about having enough to do in the twenty to thirty minute gathering. This commitment takes place during either the 9:45, or 11:45 Mass. Please contact Susan (586-254-2944 X309) if you can help!

Bible Study - The Book of Revelation

Our study has begun, but there is still time to register if you are interested. The same study is being offered on Tuesday mornings at 9:30 AM, or Thursday evenings at 6:30 PM. Each group will meet a total of eight times. We are studying the Book of Revelation using the revised materials from the folks at Little Rock Scripture Study. Contact the Discipleship Office if you'd like more information, or you'd like to register.

► Adopt a Family or Foster Child for Christmas

 John Karski, Director of Evangelical Charity johnk@stol.church

Our Parish Adopt-a-Family/Foster Child Program helps struggling families and foster children in our area have a magical Christmas and experience the light of Christ.

Sponsors, whether individuals or groups, are matched with a family or foster child who cannot provide Christmas due to difficult circumstances. We will provide information on their needs (clothing, gifts, etc.) to make your shopping easier. You can also help by giving a financial donation.

If you or your group would like to help, please contact John Karski at 586-254-4433 x302. We kindly ask for all requests by November 15 to determine how many we can assist.

► Driver Safety Program for Seniors

Health Ministry | 👤 Marilyn Cito, Parish Nurse ✉ marilync@stol.church

There are more than 41 million licensed drivers age 65 and older on the roads, up from 26 million 20 years ago. As people age, changes to vision, hearing, and reflexes may affect driving skills and the risk of being injured or killed in a motor vehicle crash increases. Physical and mental changes that may affect driving includes:

Arthritis: Joints get stiff, and muscles weaken, which makes it harder to turn your head to look back, turn the steering wheel quickly, or brake safely.

Eye sight: People, things, and movement outside the direct line of sight might be harder to see, like street or traffic signs. Night driving can be challenging with the glare from oncoming headlights or street lights. Eye diseases such as glaucoma, cataracts, and macular degeneration may cause vision problems.

Hearing: Horns, sirens, or noises coming from your own car may be difficult to hear and cause a problem since these sounds warn you when you need to pull over or get out of the way.

Reflexes: The aging process may cause shorter attention spans and reflexes may be slower. Loss of feeling or tingling in fingers and feet, or medical conditions like strokes or Parkinson's can make it difficult to steer or use the foot pedals.

Medications: Side effects that cause drowsiness or lightheadedness may impair the ability to drive safely. Read the information provided with prescriptions to make sure they do not impact driving.

General safe driving tips for seniors:

- Avoid driving at night, on the highway, or in bad weather if these things concern you. Bad weather like rain, ice, or snow make driving difficult for anyone. Wait until the weather is better, call your family/friend, or use an alternative mode of transportation.
- Older drivers may also have problems when yielding the right of way, turning (especially making left turns), changing lanes, passing, and using expressway ramps.
- If you have health problems or medications that might make it unsafe for you to drive, talk with your doctor to develop a plan to help you keep driving and decide when it is no longer safe.
- Take a defensive driving course to refresh your driving skills, such as the AARP course at St. Therese on October 9 & 10. Proven driving techniques are taught to keep you safe on the road. You may even qualify for a car insurance discount! You will learn facts about the effects of medication on driving, how to reduce driver distractions, maintain the proper distance behind another car, the proper use of safety belts, air bags, and anti-lock brakes, techniques for handling left turns, right-of-way and roundabouts, and new technology found in cars today.

St. Therese of Lisieux will host an AARP Driver Safety Course on October 9 & 10 from 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM. If you are interested in attending this class, please RSVP to the Parish Office Secretary at 586-254-4433 or Marilyn Cito, the Parish Nurse at 586-254-4433 Ext #320, or via email at Marilync@stol.church. The cost is $20 for AARP members and $25 for non-members.

If you decide it's time to give up driving your car, talk with family/friends to make transportation arrangements. A list of transportation alternatives is posted on the Health Ministry Bulletin Board in the Gathering Space and includes the following resources:

- Shelby Township Senior Citizens Transportation: 586-739-7540
- MyRide2: 855-697-4332
- Interfaith Volunteer Caregivers: 586-757-5551
- Smart Bus: 866-962-5515
- Other options include Uber and Lyft rides (MyRide2 will book the Lyft ride for you)
- Taxi services and free or low-cost buses, if you are able to walk safely

► Call to Serve

 Deacon Greg Willoughby  deacongreg@stol.church

Saturday, October 5, Archbishop Vigneron ordained Chris Jaskowiec, Charlie Robeck, Mark Sienkowski, and Arvin Stephenson to the Permanent Diaconate to serve the Archdiocese of Detroit. They, with the continuous support of their families, have spent four years of discernment in responding to God's call to serve. As part of their formation process, they prepared themselves intellectually through rigorous education and academic endeavors at Sacred Heart Major Seminary. They engaged in summer ministries which strengthened their human formation in a way that they have become, "a bridge and not an obstacle for others in their meeting with Jesus Christ the Redeemer of man." Lastly, they have been immersed in spiritual formation, a process in which the primary goal is the establishment and nourishment of attitudes, habits, and practices that will set the foundation for a lifetime of on-going spiritual discipline. Please keep them, along with their families, in your prayers as they begin a wonderful journey of ordained ministry serving God's people.

► Halloween Candy Collection

👤 John Karski, Director of Evangelical Charity ✉ johnk@stol.church

Halloween time is approaching again and Sacred Heart Major Seminary (SHMS) is requesting our help. Each year, the seminary community opens its doors and hearts to over 2,000 children from the surrounding Detroit neighborhood. This annual tradition, which started in 1989, allows neighbors to meet the seminarians and spend an evening of safe fun for the kids. On Halloween, the neighborhood families form a line starting at the building's entrance and entering the vestibule area outside the seminary chapel.

SHMS's "Halloween Ministry" is a huge undertaking that would not be as successful without the help of the entire Sacred Heart community. If you can participate in keeping this important tradition going, please place your wrapped candy donations in the designated bin in the Gathering Space by Sunday, October 27. This is an opportunity for us to help our seminarians, especially the children of Detroit, enjoy a safe and fun evening.
