HOW HAS MY FAITH
SAVED ME?

CONNECTING POINT

 Amy Righi, Music + Liturgy Director - St. Isidore  amy@stisidore.church

Going into my junior year of college, I was performing in Los Angeles during the summer with a show group and was invited by an agent to relocate there and become a studio vocalist. A tempting invitation to any collegiate vocal music major, my fellow ensemble members were amazed that I did not immediately agree to this opportunity. I was facing a divergent road where each path would have a distinctively different effect on the rest of my life. Something (or someone) told me to wait, take time to weigh my options, and pray.

After discussion with family, careful consideration, and prayer, it became obvious that God had other plans for me. I remember praying and remembering that our faith teaches us to live for others; quitting college for the Hollywood lifestyle would be me doing something really cool for myself. The more I thought about that, the more uncomfortable I became. Finishing college and teaching would allow me to use my talents and interests to mentor other young people. I decided to stay the course and felt peaceful and convicted.

There have been many other big decisions and divergent roads since then: staying home to raise a family, gradually going back to work, and ending up full-time at church, among others. Prayer has always been first and foremost when considering which path to take. I truly believe that God has always guided me to where he wants me to be. I am so peaceful and pleased that I have enjoyed a lifetime of sharing music with young people. I have also cherished my time volunteering/working for the liturgy of the Church, which holds so much meaning for me.

I often wonder who I may have become had I taken that other road so long ago. With faith, I stayed on God's course, and I truly believe that he continues to save me.

► Keep Christ in Christmas Poster Contest

Discipleship Formation |  Veronica LaPlant  veronical@stol.church

Once again, the St. Therese Discipleship Formation Staff, sponsored by the K of C, will host the Keep Christ in Christmas Poster Contest, open to children ages 5 through 14.

The goal is to increase the awareness of young people's faith and to encourage them to speak to other youngsters "in their own language" about the true meaning of Christmas. Posters should be 11" x 17" and centered around examples of the Holy Family and the Nativity of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Entry forms are available in the church office and on the welcome desk. Please submit all artwork by Tuesday, Dec. 3.

Judging will be based on slogan, artistic merit, and overall impact. All entries will be displayed at a K of C breakfast in December and retained by the Knights.

The winners of each age group will receive a $25 award from the K of C, and their entry will be entered into the K of C district poster contest. District winners will then go on to the state contest, and so on.

All children are encouraged to participate, regardless of artistic ability. As K of C member Paul Candela says, "By engaging the creative talents and imaginations of our young people, we hope they will come to a deeper understanding of the true, spiritual meaning of Christmas."

Please direct questions to a member of the Discipleship Formation staff or Paul Candela at candelas@woway.com.

► Coats for Kids Reminder

 Paul Bieber

Throughout October, the Knights of Columbus have been collecting coats to help families who struggle to clothe their children with warm coats for the winter. This is a reminder that this coat drive ends on Thursday, Oct. 31. There are boxes in the Gathering Space for you to place your donation of clean, gently used (or brand new) coats and jackets in all sizes, from toddler to high schooler. Your donated coats will be taken to the Capuchin Service Center in Detroit in early November and given to kids who will be very thankful to receive them. There is still time to make your donation. You have been very generous in the past. Please help again this year.

► 10 Surprising Things that Happen When You Go to Adoration More Often - Part 4

👤 Evangelization Committee

The last four ways that going to Adoration may impact you are...

7. You realize how fortunate you are

If it is as simple for you as getting in the car and driving to Adoration at church (or even walking to the nearby chapel), you realize how much you can take it for granted. Some would love to spend more time with Jesus in Adoration but are homebound, sick, or busy. Then, there are those around the world who actually risk their lives for the Eucharist in places where they are persecuted for their faith. When you remember those who walk for hours or days in dangerous situations to be present with Jesus, you realize what a gift it is to be able to pray openly.

8. You realize God has a sense of humor

The more you are able to sit and let God speak to you (instead of spending all your time filling the silence by talking to him), you'll find that God has a really good sense of humor. He likes a joke or two, and sometimes, these moments are funny enough to make you want to laugh out loud. Surprising, maybe, but don't the best fathers show you their love by affectionate good humor?!

9. You want to go to Confession more

This might sound scary, but it's not. Confession allows us to experience the mighty, boundless ocean that is God's mercy. His mercy swallows up all our sins and gives us a true kind of freedom—freedom without fear, which allows us to make the leap into his love and goodness, complete with all his perfect plans for our lives. Time and time again, going to Confession reinforces the knowledge that we are jumping into the arms of a father who loves us very much and “never tires of forgiving us” (Pope Francis).

10. You fall in love

Ultimately, you can't help this one! When you spend more time with an open heart in Adoration and just let Christ love you, then you'll fall in love, too. That love will define you and allow you to be yourself. “I came that they may have life, life in all its fullness” (John 10:10).

GROW Updates

Roughly 500 people attended the annual St. Therese of Lisieux Pumpkin Patch Party on Oct. 11. In addition to painting pumpkins, families enjoyed cider and donuts, games, treats, face-painting, and even making s'mores by a fire. Thank you to all who attended and to the volunteers who made this event possible!

Look for more wonderful family opportunities as we move into the holiday season!

► Halloween Safety Tips

Health Ministry | 👤 Marilyn Cito, Parish Nurse 📧 marilync@stol.church

Halloween is typically associated with lots of fun things to do, like trick-or-treating, attending parties, carving pumpkins, and eating candy, but there are potential dangers families should consider. When planning festivities this year, keep these Halloween safety tips in mind:

- Don't leave candles burning in pumpkins/luminaries. Use battery-operated flames instead.
- With small children, paint or decorate a pumpkin with stickers since carving tools are difficult for them to use.
- Use flame-resistant costumes, wigs, and accessories. Ensure costumes fit to avoid tripping and falling.
- If applying face paint, avoid the eyes and test for skin allergies before using.
- Use a flashlight, LED light, or reflective tape to make children's costumes visible to others, including cars.
- If wearing a mask, test for visibility out of the eye holes and proper breathability.
- If a costume requires a sword or weapon, do not swing it around. Keep the pointed part away from the body and others to avoid hurting anyone.

Halloween Safety Tips for Kids/Pets:

- Do not allow your children to go inside a home to accept candy—unless you accompany them.
- Inspect candy before eating. Check the contents of bags/buckets for choking hazards and ensure the candy is sealed correctly. Throw away anything that's been opened or not packaged. Wait until getting home before eating candy so it can be properly inspected.

- Review labels for potentially harmful ingredients like peanuts, tree nuts, dairy, or gluten (if your child has allergies).
- Supervise children when eating hard candy/peanuts since they could choke.
- Ensure children brush their teeth before bed to get rid of excess sugar eaten.
- Keep candy away from pets since it can be toxic to them.

Halloween Safety Tips for Adults:

- Lock your doors so valuables are safe while you're out.
- Ensure your pets are secure in the house if passing out treats to kids.
- Stay in neighborhoods that are familiar to you.
- Go out with family or friends. Keep children in sight and stay together. Designate a meeting spot in case you get split up.
- Start early, and don't stay out late. Observe the neighborhood time recommendations.
- Tell kids to walk—not run—and cross at the corners only after looking both ways.
- Plan your route. Stay on the same side of the street (instead of zig-zagging back and forth).
- Hand out individually wrapped candy/treats to prevent the spread of germs.
- Only approach homes that have a porch light on (or are obviously accepting trick-or-treaters).
- Wear shoes that are easy to walk in (e.g., sneakers).

- If inclement weather is forecasted, dress appropriately or consider staying home.

And, in case you want to skip the traditional trick-or-treating routine this year and do something different, here are a few ideas:

- Host a Halloween party: Invite some of your (children's) friends or relatives to a party at your house.
- Movie night: Watch a scary movie together. Maybe someone in your neighborhood has a projector and would host an outdoor movie night!
- Halloween trunk-or-treat parade: Coordinate with your neighbors to have the kids dress up and parade around the block before handing out candy from your trunk.
- Spooky scavenger hunt: Hide Halloween-themed items in the yard for the family, or organize a neighborhood hunt to various "haunted" spots to gather information that leads to a prize!
