MUSINGS + MESSAGES

👤 Msgr. John Kasza, Moderator 📧 frjohn@stol.church

What gifts do you give to the Christ Child? Probably not gold, frankincense, or myrrh; Jesus does not need any of those things. In fact, Jesus does not need anything from us. However, he does want us to give him our hearts, minds, and souls.

This past Advent, we were asked to spend less and give more so that we could love all and thereby worship God more fully. Now, on the Feast of the Epiphany, we are invited to offer ourselves to the Lord and then share the Good News of salvation with the world, as the Magi did.

How will you make Christ present this new year? What will you do differently in 2025 to be a light to the nations by sharing your gifts and talents as an act of worship to God? We are stewards of God's grace and mercy. How will we manifest our stewardship this year?

Connecting Point

👤 Amy Righi - Music + Liturgy Director, St. Isidore ✉ amy@stisidore.church

► What does it mean to see Christ in the face of others?

The celebration of the Epiphany highlights a profound revelation: Christ came not only for the Jews but for all people, as shown by the visit of the Magi in Matthew 2:1-12. The Magi—outsiders and strangers from distant lands—were led to the Christ child by a star, representing the universal reach of God’s love. This moment invites us to see beyond the familiar and recognize the presence of Christ in every person, regardless of background or identity.

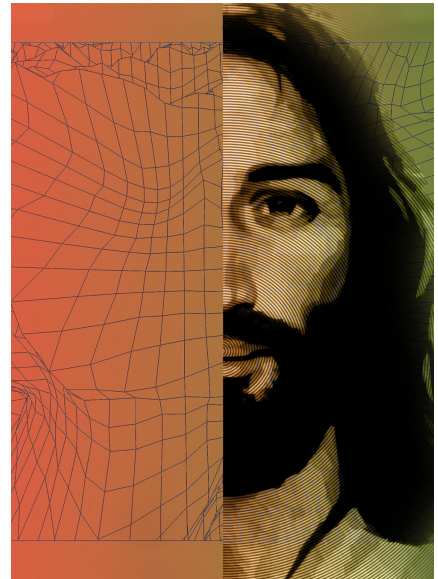

It is easy to see the face of Christ in the kind stranger, such as the generous grocery store employee who gives you credit for your recently expired coupon. The real challenge comes when we consider the irritating or threatening stranger—the one who doesn’t deserve our kindness. Is it a fellow shopper who gives you a dirty look or recklessly cuts you off in traffic? The “foreigner” who may or may not have a green card? Someone with a different skin color or religion? Perhaps this “stranger” is even a friend or family member who was estranged due to differing political or world views.

What was more important for Christ: rules or relationships?

We are faced with daily opportunities (and challenges) to grow in relational maturity by choosing to recognize Christ in everyone. We are here to help and support one another—even the crabby, irritating strangers who threaten our peace. These difficult encounters can be embraced as training for us to become the best versions of ourselves: the people God created us to be. The best way we can achieve this goal is by setting a good example in our responses and interactions with all strangers.

The Magi were probably not all from the same country, and maybe some had even been enemies. Yet, their journey teaches us that Christ is not restrained by boundaries; He is revealed to all who seek Him. This universal call requires us to look beyond superficial differences and recognize Christ’s image in the faces of those we may not initially understand or appreciate.

To see Christ in strangers is to see with the eyes of compassion, freely offering hospitality and love, just as the Magi did by bringing gifts to the child King. In addition, it is to live out this inclusion, opening ourselves to the radical hospitality that Christ demonstrated. If only we could all take a breath in prayer and seize every opportunity as a gift to share the richness of His grace with others.

As Victor Hugo’s line from Les Misérables so powerfully captures, “To love another person is to see the face of God.” Loving and welcoming the stranger allows us to encounter the divine. Just as the Magi’s journey deepened their faith, seeing Christ in those who are different, unfamiliar, and challenging can transform our own hearts and expand our understanding of God’s love.

► "Our" CIA Monthly Update: Running Strong, Together!

👤 Bill Hicks

The 2024/2025 Disciples Unleashed Family of Parishes OCIA journey is starting to hit high gear!

While a good bit of the trip remains ahead of us, our Catechumens (those converting to the faith) and Candidates (those on track to complete their Catholic Sacraments) are fully charged and excited to continue toward full initiation at the Easter Vigil.

Looking back on where we've been in 2024—while hopefully anticipating where 2025 will lead us, I feel tremendous gratitude for the many FoP staff members and parishioners who have stepped up to support our brothers and sisters seeking to grow in their relationships with Christ and this wonderful faith community of ours. A few special shoutouts are in order for Susan Ball and Geri Konon. These ladies cheerfully provide first-rate hospitality each time we hold sessions at St. Isidore. When our travels take us to St. Therese, Daniel Purifoy and Nate Chevalier can always be counted on to ensure we have plenty of everything we need.

A word of thanks to St. Therese's Ginger Ernst, as well as Karen and Dave Bisdorf at St. Isidore, for helping us get our "Parish Sponsor" concept off the ground. Their presence was key to a very successful OCIA Movie Night we hosted in November. It will be exciting to see how the Parish Sponsor role might grow in the coming year!

Finally, thanks to all who continue to remember "Our" CIA efforts in your prayers. Perhaps most importantly, kudos for sharing a friendly smile and offering words of encouragement to those who are on the journey of a lifetime.

It Does, In Fact, Take a Village!

👤 Evangelization Committee

We've all heard the saying, "It takes a village," and it holds true for our wonderful parish, St. Therese of Lisieux!

Through the Giving Tree program, your donations to St. Leo's Soup Kitchen allowed them stronger purchasing power for the needs of their guests. Thank you to so many of our parishioners for your generous donations!

In addition, our team of St. Paul Street Evangelizers gave the director a generous check and 150 "Blessing Bags" for the adults and their children. The bags were filled with much-needed toiletries, snacks, and special items for the children. The director could not believe his eyes, and he was very grateful!

Many people were involved in creating these bags. Peggy Casing, Director of Discipleship Formation, and her team were instrumental in asking the students and their families to donate specific items. This team, along with the youth ministry and students at Austin Catholic High School, under the direction of Diana Devine, also lent a hand. All of our directors were involved in supporting this endeavor, and Msgr. Kasza deserves a special thank-you for his continued support.

At our parish, we are truly blessed to have a "village" of folks who follow the teachings of Jesus Christ!

Happy New Year from the Evangelization Committee!

Pope Francis reminds us that "The primary mission of the Church is to evangelize."

DISCIPLESHIP FORMATION

Adult Bible Study Starting Soon!

It isn't too late to register for our first class! If you haven't registered yet, you can still drop in. We'll make arrangements for your book right away.

Starting Jan. 7 and 9, we will be offering a ten-session study of "Lectio: Salvation New Life in Christ," with video lectures featuring Dr. Michael Barber. Sessions will be offered with a choice of Tuesday mornings, from 9:30 to 11 AM, and/or Thursday evenings, from 6:30 to 8 PM. Participants can choose whichever session best fits their schedule, even toggling between mornings and evenings, as needed. In class, we'll discuss the fact that Catholics confess that Jesus came down from heaven "for us men and for our salvation" at every Mass, yet we don't always have a clear understanding of what "salvation" really means. In this video-guided study, scripture scholar and theologian Michael Patrick Barber provides a thorough, deeply Catholic, and deeply biblical answer. Based on the best-selling book, Salvation: What Every Catholic Should Know, this program is inspiring, engaging, and is expected to be a great discussion starter! Make sure to register so we can order a book for you! There is a $20 book fee due at the first session. Online registration is currently available, including payment of the book fee! Check our website. You can also register by contacting Kim at 586-254-2944 or kimc@stol.church.

Children's Programs

Our programs are up and running after the Christmas break. Sunday programs, Grow, and Mission will all meet the weeks of Jan. 5 and 12, 2025. If you need clarification, make sure to check the programs' online calendars, which can be found under "Discipleship Formation."

Home Blessing

One tradition in the Catholic Church is to bless chalk at the Epiphany Masses and then use the blessed chalk to bless one's home in the New Year. Even if you don't have chalk from church, you can still bless your house.

The home blessing can be done as follows: Using chalk, mark the current year and the initials of the Magi above the outside doorways of your home. Place a cross between each of the letters like this: 20+C+M+B+XX (XX = last two digits of current year). Then, pray the following prayer:

May all who come to our home this year rejoice to find Christ living among us, and may we seek and serve Jesus by finding him in everyone we meet. We pray this prayer in the name of Jesus, who is Lord of all people, forever and ever. Amen.

The legendary names of the three Magi are Casper, Melchior, and Balthasar. The initials C+M+B stand for three Latin words: Christus Mansionem Benedicat, which means "May Christ bless this dwelling." If possible, the markings over the doors should be left all year.

► Fall Prevention

👤 Marilyn Cito ✉ marilyn@stol.church

Did you know that one in four older Americans falls every year? Falls are the leading cause of both fatal and nonfatal injuries for people aged 65+. Falls can result in hip fractures, broken bones, and head injuries. Even falls without a major injury can cause older adults to become fearful or depressed, making it difficult for them to stay active.

If you are a senior or have an aging parent, grandparent, or friend, helping reduce the risk of falling is a great way to stay healthy and independent for as long as possible. The good news about falls is that most of them can be prevented; the key is knowing where to look. Here are some common factors that can lead to a fall:

- Balance and gait: With age, most people lose some coordination, flexibility, and balance (primarily through inactivity), which makes it easier to fall.
- Vision: In the aging eye, less light reaches the retina, making contrasting edges, tripping hazards, and obstacles harder to see.
- Medications: Some prescription and over-the-counter medicines can cause dizziness, dehydration, or interactions with other medications, which can lead to falls.

- Environment: Most seniors have lived in their homes for a long time and have never thought about simple modifications that might keep them safe as they age.
- Chronic conditions: More than 80% of older adults have at least one chronic condition like diabetes, stroke, or arthritis. Often, these conditions increase the risk of falling because they result in lost function, inactivity, depression, pain, or multiple medications.

St. Therese of Lisieux will host an 8-week fall prevention workshop series, “A Matter of Balance,” presented by AgeWays (formerly Area Agency of Aging 1-b), on Wednesdays from Jan. 22 through Mar. 12 at 1 to 3 PM in Overflow Room 10. This award-winning program is designed to manage falls and increase activity levels. The classes will also cover how to make changes to reduce fall risks at home and how to exercise to increase strength and balance. They are free, but donations will be accepted. Registration is required! Please call 833-262-2200, email wellnessprograms@AgeWays.org, or register online at tinyurl.com/AgeWaysWorkshops.

Balance becomes a serious issue as we age. This lecture series will address strategies for maintaining balance and preventing falls. If you are a senior, please consider taking these classes.
