SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Connecting Point

Chris Piebiak - Director of Family Ministry chrisp@stol.church

Promoting the Gospel is a call for every believer to live out their faith and share the Good News of Jesus Christ with the world. To “give more” in this mission means embracing sacrificial generosity, creativity, and commitment in every area of your life. When we live as Disciples Unleashed, our impact on the Kingdom grows exponentially.

1. Prioritize Prayer

Prayer is foundational. Begin by asking God to show you where your efforts are most needed. Pray for missionaries, ministries, and individuals who have not yet heard the Gospel. Prayer aligns your heart with God’s mission and prepares the soil for fruitful ministry.

2. Give More of Your Time

The Gospel is most effectively shared through relationships. Devote time to participating in outreach initiatives, building meaningful connections with others, and mentoring new believers, non-believers, or lukewarm believers. By investing your time, you not only share Christ's truth but also reflect his love and care.

3. Share Your Talents

God has equipped each of us with unique skills to serve his Kingdom. Promote the Gospel by using your gifts in ways that bring glory to him. Whether through teaching, writing, music, or technical skills, every talent can help spread the message of Christ and inspire others.

4. Give Financially

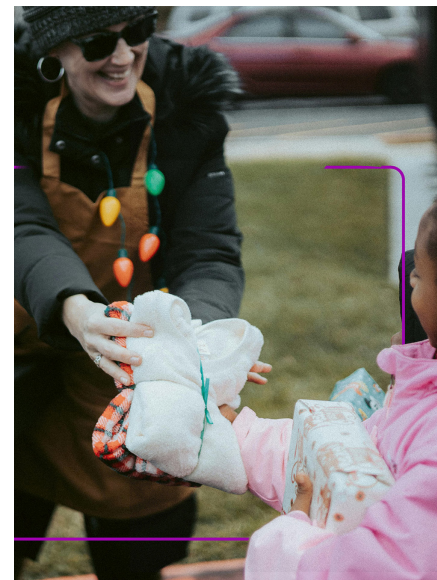

Giving financially to your church, missionaries, or Gospel-centered organizations can have a profound impact. Funds are often needed for outreach programs, food pantries, and humanitarian efforts that open doors for evangelization. Even small, consistent contributions can make a significant difference when multiplied by those of others.

5. Be Bold in Your Witness

Living as Disciples Unleashed means being unapologetic about your faith. Share your testimony with courage and authenticity—in both word and deed. Be intentional about inviting others into the life-changing truth of the Gospel.

When we intentionally give more, we participate in God's redemptive work around the world. As we unleash our time, talents, and treasures, we become vessels of transformation, carrying the light of Christ to those in need. This is how the Gospel is promoted—through faithful disciples who live boldly for his glory.

► How's Your Advent Going?

👤 Matt Kush, Director of Engagement ✉ matt@stol.church

We're halfway through Advent—how's it going for you? Are you feeling rushed by the holiday to-do list, or have you found moments of peace and purpose in this season of preparation?

If you haven't already, we invite you to take a step back and refocus on what truly matters this Advent. Our Advent Action Book is a simple but powerful tool designed to help you align with the four themes of the Advent Conspiracy:

- Worship Fully: Make space for God in your day. Pray, reflect, and find time to center your heart on Christ
- Spend Less: Step off the treadmill of consumerism. Consider thoughtful, meaningful ways to give that don't break the bank.
- Give More: Give more of yourself—your time, attention, and love—to the people in your life. Presence often means more than presents.
- Love All: Extend kindness to those around you and beyond.

Share God's love with those who need it most.

Each week, we've been showing short videos at Mass that dive deeper into these themes. If you missed one or would like to reflect on them again, they're available on our website at disciplesunleashed.org/advent-conspiracy. These videos are a great way to stay connected to the heart of this movement and reflect on the true meaning of Christmas.

The Advent Action Book is filled with simple, practical ideas that can help you live out these themes. It's not too late to dive in and take small, intentional steps that will reshape how you approach Christmas.

This season isn't about doing more; it's about doing things differently. It's about letting go of the distractions and reclaiming the joy and peace of Christ's birth. So, how's your Advent going? If it's not quite what you'd hoped, there's still time to make it meaningful.

Let's continue this journey together—one step, one action, one moment at a time.

► Armor of God Men's Group

👤 Paul Bieber

The St. Therese of Lisieux Armor of God Men's Group has been meeting twice/month to discuss topics taken from the Catholic Answers Books. For the meetings in December, the format will change to be a more prayerful session. At both the Monday, Dec. 9 (7:00 PM) and Saturday, Dec. 14 (8:00 AM) sessions, we will meet in the Divine Mercy Conference Room for an introduction to the Liturgy of the Hours and then move to the sanctuary to pray the Liturgy of the Hours, have Benediction and silent prayer. Following snacks and beverages will be provided in the Divine Mercy Conference Room while we discuss the previous activities. The sessions will last ninety minutes or less. There will be no Adoration at 7:00 AM on Saturday.

What is "Liturgy of the Hours?" The Liturgy of the Hours, the [Second Vatican] Council tells us, is our association with Christ in singing the eternal hymn of praise. It is a public prayer of the Church which includes hymns, psalms, readings, and prayers according to the liturgical calendar. Early Christians have gathered for morning and evening prayer since the early 200's AD and the Armor of God sessions will pray the "Evening Liturgy" on Monday and the "Morning Liturgy" on Saturday. By praying the Liturgy of the Hours, you immerse your prayer life in the Psalms and readings from the Old and New Testaments, improving your knowledge of scripture and Christ. These Liturgy of the Hours sessions are open to all men of our parish family. Please join us in engaging your spiritual life. Materials and guidance will be provided.

► Knights of Columbus News

👤 Paul Bieber

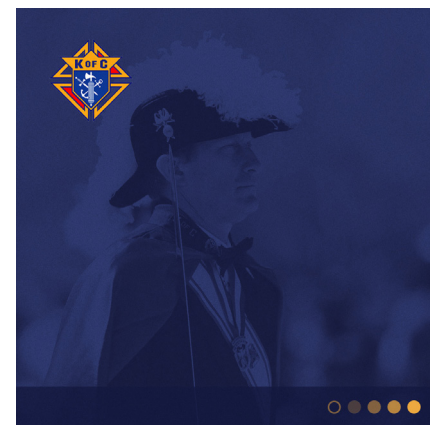

November was a busy month for the Knights at St. Therese. Along with the usual Buffet Breakfast and Coffee & Donuts, coats were delivered to the Capuchin Service Center in Detroit, and a membership drive and Corporate Communion were held and new Knights were welcomed into the council. Below is an update on the Coats for Kids drive and a couple of events that are coming up:

Some Things Never Change

👤 Evangelization Committee

Perhaps you remember your mom, grandma, or even great-grandma singing a song that is just as meaningful today as when it first came out back in the 1950s. The song, sung by Don Cornell, was called "The Bible Tells Me So." Here are the lyrics:

Have faith, hope, and charity
That's the way to live successfully

How do I know?
The Bible tells me so.

Do good to your enemies
And the Blessed Lord, you'll surely please

How do I know?
The Bible tells me so.

Don't worry about tomorrow
Just be real good today

The Lord is right beside you
He'll guide you all the way!

It would surely be fun to look it up and play it for the family!

Pope Francis reminds us that "The primary mission of the Church is to evangelize."

DISCIPLESHIP FORMATION

Recent GROW Program Updates

Children in grades 1-6 learned about the Feast of Christ the King. They discussed the fact that the church year will wrap up soon and that Advent marks the start of a new liturgical year in the church.

Families sent in donations for the upcoming Blessing Bag assembly that the children will take part in during classes in early December. Thank you to all who donated!

Bible Study Starting Soon!

We are excited to be offering a ten-session study of "Lectio: Salvation New Life in Christ," with video lectures featuring Dr. Michael Barber. In this study, we will discuss the meaning behind the fact that at every Sunday Mass, Catholics confess that Jesus came down from heaven "for us men and for our salvation." Scripture scholar and theologian Michael Patrick Barber provides a thorough, deeply Catholic, and deeply biblical, answer. Based on the best-selling book, Salvation: What Every Catholic Should Know, this video study program is inspiring, engaging, and is expected to be a great discussion starter!

Classes will begin the week of January 7 and 9, 2025, and will continue through mid-March. Sessions will be offered with a choice of Tuesday mornings, from 9:30-11:00 AM, and/or Thursday evenings, from 6:30-8:00 PM. Participants can choose whichever session best fits their schedule, even toggling between day and evening, as needed. Please know, there will be $20 book fee, due at the first session. Make sure to register by contacting Kim at 586-254-2944, or kimc@stol.church.

Advent Wreath Prayers

We encourage you to take the time to pray a bit more during the season of Advent. The tradition of using an Advent Wreath is just one way.

This week, while you light the first and second, purple candles, try praying, using these words: Heavenly Father, Help me (us) to take time this week to focus on the fact that Christmas isn't about more presents; it's about God's presence. Help me (us) to "give more" to promote the Gospel, whether by words, or by actions. May my (our) witness to love and kindness spread throughout all of my (our) encounters and activities this week, serving as a beacon of light, drawing others to Christ, especially the hungry, the lonely, and the hurting. This Advent, help me (us) live out my (our) faith more fully. (Follow with meal prayer, if fitting.) -Amen!

► Managing Stress During the Holidays

👤 Marilyn Cito ✉ marilyn@stol.church

Although most everyone loves the holiday season, it can also be a time of stress. There never seems to be enough time to get everything done. Decorating, shopping, baking, cooking, wrapping presents, parties, and visiting with families and friends can make this wonderful time of the year overwhelming. Saying “yes” to every request can sometimes result in feeling exhausted. This holiday season, make a commitment to set some boundaries and “savor each moment”. Here are a few tips for trying to achieve that:

- Take care of yourself! This means something different to each of us:
 - Spend time alone. Pray. Meditate.
 - Enjoy the wonderful church celebrations/activities and Masses. They are beautiful and heartwarming.
 - Get enough sleep.
 - Practice gratitude.
 - Take time to relax and not over extend yourself.
 - Pamper yourself “a little.” Take a lingering bath, get a manicure or hair done, listen to music, read. Do what YOU enjoy doing!
 - Practice self-control with eating and drinking and plan accordingly when going to parties, family gatherings, and other holiday events.
 - Don’t forget to exercise!
- Give yourself permission to say “no.” This includes parties, gift giving, baking cookies or decorating your house. Just because you have always “done it that way,” doesn’t mean you need to keep doing it! Ask yourself if it is “value added” and if it is, then it’s fine to continue doing it.
- Ask others to help. I know most of us don’t like to ask for help when hosting an event or preparing for the holidays, but maybe you could reconsider? Asking people to bring a dish to pass at a party or inviting family or friends to trim your tree will alleviate some stressful details of the holiday and can be fun! Start a new tradition of baking with your friends or family. It is a great way to pass on those precious family recipes to our loved ones. Make a day of decorating the tree and house with family. Another great tradition!
- Look for opportunities to do holiday preparation a little easier. This might include purchasing part of a holiday meal from a store, ordering groceries or gifts online instead of going to the store and standing in the long lines. Instead of baking all of those desserts for Christmas, consider buying a few fancy ones at the bakery?
- Keep the conversations, light and fun. Take the opportunity to reminisce about “past holidays.” This is a great time to share videos/pictures from prior years! Stay clear of politics and stressful events of the year. If people get into disagreements about politically charged discussions, steer the conversation into something “lighter.”
- Ask family and friends to “refrain” from talking and texting on the phone during family gatherings. Decorate a basket and ask everyone to put their phones in the basket. This is a great opportunity for them to “disconnect” for a few hours, be “present in the moment” and enjoy their time with their loved ones.
- Know your limitations. If something feels like it’s “too much,” re-evaluate whether you need to continue with that activity. This could include family gatherings, staying out late, shopping, or just “doing too much!” No one will think less of you if you let them know you need to just take a “breather.”
- Share the holiday with someone who could use your help or who is alone. This could include calling or visiting someone who is alone or the caregiver of someone, delivering a meal to their home, or dropping off a little gift to them. This also could include spending a couple of hours sitting with a person for a caregiver, so they have some time for themselves.

In the end, it is up to each of us to make the holidays what we want them to be. It is our responsibility to set limitations on ourselves so that we have time to think about the “real meaning” of Christmas and God. It is a wonderful opportunity to reflect and thank God for all of our blessings and to share that spirit with our loved ones.
