THE FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

MUSINGS + MESSAGES

👤 Msgr. John Kasza, Moderator ✉ frjohn@stol.church

In the middle of the Christmas season, we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family. This year the Gospel reading describes a scene familiar to many parents: a pre-teen Jesus goes off by himself and causes his parents to worry. Then when they find him, Jesus sort of talks back, but then is obedient and returns home to Nazareth. How many parents have had issues with their pre-teen/teenager?

This feast is a reminder that all families, even the Holy Family, can have difficulties at times. But those are opportunities for growth and development. The key is dialogue and understanding. The TV show “Young Sheldon” illustrates some of what I’m getting at. Young Sheldon, a genius, says and does things that exasperate his parents and family. Yet, they still love him. They don’t always understand him and occasionally, Sheldon needs to be put in his place. While he doesn’t ▶ How can I trust God through family anxiety?

Family life is full of love and joy, but it can also bring its share of stress. In this Sunday's Gospel, we get a glimpse into a very human moment for the Holy Family. Mary and Joseph lose track of 12-year-old Jesus for three days—imagine their panic! When they finally find Him in the temple, Mary says what any parent might: “Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety.”

We've all had moments like this in our families. Maybe it's the uncertainty of our kids' decisions, the challenges of caring for an aging parent, or just navigating the ups and downs of life together. Like Mary and Joseph, we can find ourselves asking, “Why is this happening? What should I do?”

This Gospel reminds us that even in the middle of anxiety and confusion, we're not alone. Mary and Joseph didn't understand why Jesus stayed behind, but they trusted that God had a plan for Him. They remind us that we don't need all the answers to stay close to God.

Trusting God through family stress doesn't mean our worries magically disappear. It means handing those worries to Him and trusting that He's walking with us. When we feel overwhelmed, we can ask for God's guidance, lean on prayer, and remember that He's with us, even when life feels uncertain.

So, how can we trust God through family anxiety this week? Maybe it's by taking a deep breath and asking God to give us peace. Maybe it's by letting go of the things we can't control. Or maybe it's as simple as remembering that God loves our family even more than we do.

In Apparition Hill, seven strangers journey to Medjugorje, Bosnia-Herzegovina, where the Virgin Mary is said to appear each month, to investigate reports of miracles and search for answers to life's big questions. This is a documentary-like it, he is obedient to his parents and grandmother. Even when he is an adult (in the show “The Big Bang Theory”), he is still obedient to his mother even if he rolls his eyes at what she says.

In our own family units, do we love and respect one another to allow for differences of opinion? Are we willing to forgive transgressions? Do we become hard-nosed in our discipline? Today’s feast challenges us to examine how we live as a family. Are we growing closer to God by our interactions or are we tearing one another down? Invite the Holy Family to intercede for your family so you too may grow holier each and every day.

Let There Be Peace On Earth

👤 Evangelization Committee

You’ve all heard the song, “Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.” What a wonderful thought and beautiful way to start off 2025!

As it turns out, “Bringing happiness to others, increases your chances of being happy, while seeking happiness for yourself, decreases those chances.” This is an important message from the book, The Biggest Lie in the History of Christianity. Who knew? Let’s get busy! Here a few simple examples of things you can do to make others smile:

- Tell someone how much you appreciate something they did
- Tell someone that you love them
- Smile at a stranger, or 2 or 10!
- Give someone a hug
- Offer to pray with someone
- Give someone a compliment
- Let someone get in front of you as you wait in line at a store
- Hide an anonymous “Happy Note” for someone to find
- Pay for a stranger’s coffee
- Feed the birds; it will make others stop at the window and admire God’s creations

- Bring a homemade treat to your neighbor

Have a family discussion about what else you can add to the list.

Let’s all enjoy bringing Peace on Earth!

Pope Francis reminds us that “The primary mission of the Church is to evangelize.”

► The 2024 St. Therese Health Ministry

👤 Marilyn Cito ✉️ marilyn@stol.church

The Christmas season always causes me to pause and reflect on the year past and the blessings God has bestowed upon us. Although there are so many terrible things going on in the world with wars, unrest, unhappiness, and anxiety, we are still blessed in so many ways.

Although the Christmas holidays are usually a time for fun-filled family and friend get-togethers, celebrations, and wonderful religious events, it is important to remember it might also be a time of sadness and loneliness. Hosting Grief Support Groups at St. Therese has taught me there are no “time limits” for those who have suffered a loss, even though others may think sufficient time has passed. We must respect grief as an individual journey for each person and recognize the holidays may be a difficult time for them.

It is important to keep our parishioners, community, and world in our prayers and offer support to those who may be suffering either physically or mentally. It is our responsibility to help those in need, be compassionate and understanding, and kind. The St. Therese of Lisieux Health Ministry is here to help you. Please reach out to a Health Ministry Member or Parish Office if you are in need of help or support.

St. Therese of Lisieux Health Ministry has been busy with our “usual” activities, but we have added some new and exciting programs! As we customarily do at the end of the year,

I would like to share some of this year’s highlights of our wonderful St. Therese Health Ministry:

- Our Medical Lending Closet provides durable medical equipment like wheelchairs, shower chairs, and commodes, protein supplements and briefs at no cost to our community. We served over 200 people.
- Provided 16 educational programs during the year. Over 516 people attended these programs with topics like Anxiety and Depression, Diabetes, Arthritis and Hand Pain, Cancer Screening and Prevention, Back Pain and Treatments, Medication Safety, Eye Conditions, AARP Driver Safety Programs, Elder Law and Estate Planning.
- Held four First Aid, AED, Medical Emergency Training classes for 105 K of C and Usher members.
- Hosted two Flu Vaccine events with 63 people attending.
- The Grief Ministry, facilitated by Marilyn Kylmala, sends sympathy and Christmas cards to families of deceased parishioners and hosted a Memorial Mass.
- Heidi Boccomino, our Health Ministry Member and Social Worker, facilitated our “Hope for the Holidays” workshop for 16 people.
- Hosted a LifeLine Screening Event with 78 people attending.
- Hosted three 9-week Grief Support groups (27 sessions) for parishioners and community, Donna Hagg, Paula Breitschuh and Sr. Mary Andrew helped facilitate these groups with 10-15 people attending each session.
- Sue Verellen and Donna Ludwig facilitate three Widow/Widower/Men Social groups.
- Sue Verellen and other Health Ministry members have provided over 282 hours of respite care, visits, phone calls and texts to parishioners.
- Hosted five Blood Drives this past year and collected 120 units of blood from these events.
- Meals from The Heart program is ongoing and serves meals to parishioners who are ill, or who have had surgery. Mickey Wilson is in charge of this ministry as well as the Medical Lending Closet.
- Paula Breitschuh and Char Tocco do monthly Blood Pressure Screenings during Rambling Rose meetings.
- Medical educational articles are written by the Health Ministry each week for the bulletin.
- Hosted our First Annual Mother’s Day Tea with 104 attending.

This list is not inclusive of the countless hours and activities the St. Therese of Lisieux’s Health Ministry participates in. And, none of this would be possible without the help of our 44 Health Ministry members. Each member donates their talents, time, and energy selflessly for the good of our parish community. Not everyone in the Health Ministry is a healthcare worker, but each person contributes in their own way to make our Health Ministry successful. We

DISCIPLESHIP FORMATION

Rite of Enrollment Updates - First Communion and Confirmation Students

Children preparing to celebrate First Communion or Confirmation in 2025 are invited to attend the Rite of Enrollment on January 12, 2025 during the 9:45 AM Mass. Children should come to Mass with their families and will be called forward for a special blessing and prayer. Check in prior to Mass in the Gathering Space between 9:30 -9:40 AM. Please watch your email for details.

Adult Bible Study Starting Soon!

We are excited to be offering a ten-session study of "Lectio: Salvation New Life in Christ," with video lectures featuring Dr. Michael Barber. In this study, we will discuss the meaning behind the fact that at every Sunday Mass, Catholics confess that Jesus came down from heaven "for us men and for our salvation." Scripture scholar and theologian Michael Patrick Barber provides a thorough, deeply Catholic, and deeply biblical, answer. Based on the best-selling book, Salvation: What Every Catholic Should Know, this video study program is inspiring, engaging, and is expected to be a great discussion starter!

Classes will begin the week of January 7 and 9, 2025, and will continue through mid-March.

Sessions will be offered with a choice of Tuesday mornings, from 9:30-11:00 AM, and/or Thursday evenings, from 6:30-8:00 PM. Participants can choose whichever session best fits their schedule, even toggling between day and evening, as needed. Please know, there will be $20 book fee, due at the first session. Make sure to register by contacting Kim at 586-254-2944, or kimc@stol.church so we can order a book for you!

Virtual Learning Opportunity for Adults

Are you making a New Year's resolution to grow in your faith? If so, signing up for one of our parish bible studies is a great option. We know, however, that timing and committing to a multi-week study can be a struggle. If that's the case for you, please consider one of the free or low-cost options that are offered online from the faculty of Sacred Heart Major Seminary, our local seminary for lay and priestly formation! Available online at equip.shms.edu, these courses are self-paced and repeatable. No homework is expected. You can pause anytime, rewind and repeat. You are in the driver's seat. Currently, there are twenty options available, but more are added on a regular basis. Make sure to check them out!
