A CONNECTING POINT

MUSINGS + MESSAGES

👤 Msgr. John Kasza, Moderator 📧 frjohn@stol.church

Today's Gospel reading is the classic vocation scriptural text: "From now on, you will be catching men." But notice who Jesus chooses: Peter, who, by his own admission, is a "sinful man." This is a key point in the Scriptures: God does not choose the qualified; God qualifies those whom he chooses. In other words, God gives us the tools needed to do our jobs or vocations. An ancient dictum in sacramental theology is that the efficacy of the sacrament does not depend on the holiness of the minister. In other words, God works through imperfect people to dispense his grace and mercy. As long as the priest, deacon, or bishop intends to do what the Church intends, the sacrament is valid, even if the minister is not in a perfect state of grace at the time he confects the sacrament. Oftentimes, people ask me, "Father, the priest who married us left the priesthood. Are we still married?" Yes, of course you are. Besides, the ministers of the sacrament of marriage are the

▶ Whose voice do I trust?

Simon Peter's act of trust in Jesus, despite his doubts, teaches us an important lesson about which voices we choose to acknowledge in our own lives. In Luke's Gospel this weekend, Simon had every reason to doubt Jesus' instruction to lower the nets again. He was an experienced fisherman who had already tried and failed all night. He was likely exhausted and discouraged. Yet, instead of listening to the voice of doubt that said, "You're not good enough," or the voice of despair that whispered, "Just give up," he chose to listen to the voice of Jesus. His willingness to obey led to an overwhelming, miraculous catch—more than he ever imagined possible.

Like Simon, we are surrounded by many voices every day. Some voices—those that try to pull us away from God's path—discourage us, saying, "It's too late to change" or "Everyone else is doing it." These voices can be loud and convincing, especially when we feel weary, unworthy, or trapped by past mistakes. However, Jesus calls us to trust Him, even when His direction seems difficult or when we feel unqualified. He speaks to our hearts, telling us, "You've got this," "I have a plan for you," and "You're stronger than you think." His voice reminds us that we are not alone—that He is leading us toward something greater.

In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah also faced a moment of doubt. He encountered the glory of God and felt unworthy, saying, "Woe is me! I am a man of unclean lips." But the voice of the Lord called him beyond his fear, cleansing and strengthening him for his mission. Isaiah did not hesitate when God asked, "Whom shall I send?" Instead, he answered, "Here I am. Send me!" Like Simon, Isaiah had to silence the voices of inadequacy and fear to respond to God's call.

Jesus calls each of us to trust Him, even when we feel weak or uncertain. The world's voices may try to convince us otherwise, but His voice is the one that leads to life, hope, and abundance. May we learn to recognize and trust the voice of Jesus in our hearts, knowing that He will never lead us astray.

MUSINGS + MESSAGES (cont'd)

couple; the priest or deacon is the witness for the Church. However, if a couple did not intend to fulfill the contract of marriage or entered into it with a canonical impediment of some kind, that may be grounds for an annulment.

The main point of this week's scripture is that God works with imperfection in order to render it perfect. He works with us to make us holy and whole, provided that we cooperate with him. Even though we may be sinful, God wants us to be with him for all eternity. Therefore, we can rejoice and say with Isaiah, "Here I am; send me."

► Evangelization Is About Spreading Joy, Not Knocking on Doors

👤 Evangelization Committee

When you hear the word “evangelization,” you might picture people knocking on doors, holding bibles, and trying to convince you through fear or pressure. We get it—that’s not exactly the most inviting image! At St. Therese of Lisieux, our approach is entirely different, and we’d love to share it with you.

We’re not the kind of group you’ll find standing on busy streets with alarming signs, shouting, “Repent! The end is near!” Instead, you’ll find us at welcoming places like the St. Vincent de Paul store on Schoenherr Road. There, we set up a cheerful table offering rosaries, medals, and prayer cards. If someone shares a prayer intention, we take a moment to listen and pray with them; it’s all about connection and kindness.

At St. Therese of Lisieux, we’re a family of faith, and evangelization is about bringing that sense of belonging to others. Our committee focuses on helping people connect and grow in their spiritual journeys, starting with simple acts like learning each other’s names. That’s why we host events like Name Tag Weekends, Christmas in July, Welcome Bag announcements before Mass, Christmas Caroling, and Intercessory Prayer. These activities are designed to help people feel at home, meet others, and deepen their relationships with God.

If this sounds like something you’d enjoy, we’d love for you to join us! Whether you’re interested in becoming a member of the Evangelization Committee or just volunteering for a specific event, please call the parish office at 586-254-4433. Then, one of our committee members will happily reach out to share more details. Or better yet, let’s meet after Mass sometime and chat for a few minutes—we’d love to get to know you!

► Support the Teen Mission Trip: Bottle and Can Drive at St. Therese of Lisieux!

👤 Diana Devine, Youth Minister ✉ dianad@stol.church

Help our teens make a difference this summer by supporting their mission trip through a bottle and can drive! Simply drop off your empty bottles and cans in the bin located on the south side of the building (by the dumpster) next to the garage door. All proceeds will go directly toward funding the teens’ mission trip, where they will serve others, grow in their faith, and make lasting memories.

Your donation helps make this life-changing experience possible for our young people, and every little bit counts. Thank you for your support!

▶ Walking With Moms

👤 John Karski, Director of Evangelical Charity 📧 johnk@stol.church

On Sunday, Jan. 19, a handful of people gathered at St. Isidore to hear a presentation on abortion. Being close to the actual day of the Roe vs. Wade reversal observation, it was an opportune time to address the subject, both statistically and educationally. Sue Nellis, the director of the Compassion Pregnancy Center in Clinton Township, provided an in-depth look at what occurs when women reach out to the center and its many services offered to moms in need. The center receives no subsidy and depends entirely on donations. I want to thank Deacon Jeff, who offered a short Scripture Service, and Kathy Quayhackx and Chris Logan, all of whom are part of our Family of Parishes Evangelical Charity team. Another special thanks to Cathy Dyke and the Bountiful Bakers of St.

Therese for their supply of baked goods for the event.

We hope to continue supporting Sue and the Center's work with more planned events.

Jubilee of Hope 2025 in the Archdiocese of Detroit (Part 2 of 5)

👤 Evangelization Committee

Although pilgrimages are the main activity during a Jubilee year, there are many other things we are encouraged to do, as well.

Works of Devotion:

- Participate in a parish mission
- Study documents of the Vatican II Council or the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Works of Mercy:

- Visit the sick and/or prisoners
- Visit anyone who is elderly, lonely, or disabled

Works of Penance:

- Abstain from distractions (e.g., use of smartphone apps or social media) at least once a week
- Abstain from certain food and drink (fasting) at least once a week
- Donating money to the poor
- Support the work of those who defend and protect life in all its phases
- Support the ministry of those who work with abandoned children, the youth, needy or lonely elderly individuals, and migrants

- Dedicating one's free time to community service

As we can see from this list, there are endless ways to perform acts of love during the year, in addition to a pilgrimage. However, Archbishop Vigneron has also named 12 sites in our Archdiocese as special pilgrimage sites. Our article next week will detail these sites. For more info, visit aod.org/jubilee and the official Jubilee pages of the Vatican and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

► February is Heart Awareness Month

👤 Marilyn Cito, Parish Nurse ✉ marilyn@stol.church

The perfect gift this Valentine's Day is heart health. Along with Valentine's Day, February marks American Heart Month, a great time to commit to a healthy lifestyle and make small changes that can lead to a lifetime of heart health. Did you know heart disease is the leading cause of death in the U.S., with men comprising more than half of these fatalities? 610,000 Americans die from heart disease every year (one in four deaths). Every 42 seconds, someone has a heart attack, and every minute, someone dies from a heart-disease-related event. And heart disease is costly. $207 billion is spent each year on heart disease, including health care services, medications, and lost productivity.

Obesity contributes to five of the ten leading causes of death in the U.S., including heart disease, type 2 diabetes, cancer, stroke, and kidney disease. Medical conditions and lifestyle choices that put people at higher risk for heart disease include diabetes, being overweight, poor diet, physical inactivity, and excessive alcohol use. Almost 50% of Americans have at least one of three key risk factors for heart disease, namely high blood pressure, high cholesterol, and smoking. But there are things each of us can do to make a positive impact on our heart health.

- Get regular check-ups
- Know your blood pressure and cholesterol numbers.
- Follow your doctor's recommendations for diet and exercise.
- Take your medications as prescribed.
- If you smoke, quit now. Smoking harms heart and blood vessels, raises blood pressure, and lowers the amount of oxygen carried by the blood.
- Get at least 30 minutes of moderate physical activity each day (150 minutes weekly). It is also recommended that muscle-strengthening activities be included two days each week.
- Eat a heart-healthy diet, including fruits and vegetables, whole-grain foods, and fish.
- Watch your weight. Excess body fat is linked to conditions that increase your risk of heart disease.
- If you have diabetes, control your blood sugar.
- Limit foods high in saturated fats and dietary cholesterol.
- Limit your salt intake to 2300mg of sodium each day.
- If you drink alcoholic beverages, limit them. Women should have no more than one drink per day, and men should have no more than two.
- Have a positive outlook on life.

Johns Hopkins researchers have surmised that people with a positive outlook may have more natural protection from the damaging effects of stress. Prolonged stress can negatively impact the immune system. Improving your worldview will benefit your heart.

► A Pastoral Note to Migrants from the Catholic Bishops in Michigan

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We, the Roman Catholic Bishops in Michigan, write to offer our continued pastoral and prayerful support for migrant individuals and families who over the course of time have entered the country and today are making a living in this state. Our fraternal closeness to you and other immigrants, refugees, and those seeking humanitarian asylum is rooted in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, where we find "I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me... Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:35,40).

We hear and empathize with families across the state who express anxiety and fear over mass deportations and harmful rhetoric that broadly demeans our immigrant brothers and sisters. As shepherds of our flocks, we pledge amid such uncertainty to promote through the Michigan Catholic Conference and in our respective dioceses unyielding support and respect for the human dignity of all migrant people in our midst.

We urge our elected officials to support policies that keep immigrant and undocumented families safe and united, and to protect those who arrived as children. We call on the Michigan congressional delegation to work for a humane immigration system that welcomes refugees and immigrants by providing a fair pathway to citizenship; one that also keeps borders safe and secure from criminal activity, including human trafficking and the smuggling of illegal drugs.

Mindful of the dire conditions from which many travel, oftentimes with children through great difficulty and despair, we encourage you, our migrant brothers and sisters, to be strengthened by our Lord's words "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you... Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid" (John 14:27). Never fail to keep your faith and hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, who promises a divine kingdom that we strive to inherit and together call our true home.

With abundant love and trust, we ask Our Lady of Guadalupe to hear the cries of the suffering and offer to her maternal compassion and protection all who seek her heavenly intercession.

In Christ,
Catholic Bishops in Michigan

► 2025 Teen Mission Trip

👤 Diana Devine, Youth Minister ✉ dianad@stol.church

An open invitation to teens in grades 9-12, college students, and adults willing to help.

- Build and share your faith
- Help those in need
- Learn some cool skills
- Have fun

Join us and Group Mission Trips for the 2025 Teen Home Repair Mission Trip in Pewaukee, Wisconsin, from Jul. 20 to 26!

Teen Home Repair Mission Trips focus on home repairs for elderly, disabled, or financially challenged families. The types of home repair projects range from painting to building decks, wheelchair ramps, and other general home repairs, but the service projects are often secondary to the spiritual growth that happens when teenagers step out of their own worlds and serve those in need. Beyond the physical transformation that occurs in communities, teenagers bring the hope and light of Jesus to the residents they serve.

If there's a teenager, college student, or adult in your family or neighborhood who would like to learn these skills, benefit from personal and spiritual growth, lead others, build out a resume, or just have fun helping others while expressing their faith, please help us connect with them. The registration deadline is Friday, Feb. 28. Sweat equity opportunities to offset the cost of the trip began in January. Sign-up is required.

For more information, visit groupmissiontrips.com/trip-types/home-repair/pewaukee-wisconsin and contact Paul Candela (candelas@wowway.com / 810-523-6818) or me.
