How can I find the good in people I may not like?

MUSINGS + MESSAGES

👤 Msgr. John Kasza, Moderator 📧 frjohn@stol.church

Today's Gospel should make us uncomfortable because Jesus challenges us to love those whom we ordinarily would not love. He invites us to reflect on how we live out God's commands. If we only do good to those we like, we're missing the point. It is easy to love those whom we like, even if they annoy us at times. We can forgive them. But what about those we dislike? How do we treat them?

Jesus' words cause us to consider how we treat those who oppose our way of thinking—those who are not affiliated with us politically, socially, theologically, culturally, or ideologically. Too often, we view those who are not like us as "the enemy." Perhaps they even view us in the same way. However, when we begin to see those with differing viewpoints as just that—different—rather than evil, perhaps dialogue can begin.

Connecting Point

Fr. Ron Victor, St. Isidore fron@stisidore.church

► How can I see the good in people I may not like?

Let's admit it: We all have people in our lives whom we do not like, and there are people who don't like us. "Liking" is an emotion, and we don't have much control over our emotions. We cannot simply decide to like somebody. However, we can decide to find the good in those we may not like. We can decide to love them in spite of "not liking" them.

In our first reading this Sunday, David has an opportunity to kill King Saul, who has led an army of one thousand soldiers out to find David and kill him. (It seems that they really do not like each other!) But David, who respects Saul as "God's Anointed," refuses to harm him. He finds the inherent good in Saul.

We are all anointed by God, and God has made it so that there is inherent good in every one of us. We must look beyond our "dislikes" and find the good—even in our enemies. The word "respect" comes from the same root as "spectacles," meaning we respect, or see, the inherent good in everyone.

I have inherited my father's dislike for arrogant people. Arrogance really turns me off. So, I really struggle at times to look beyond the arrogance and find the inherent good that God has placed in self-centered people. I pray for them. I try to spend energy and time on them. The better I get to know them, the better I am able to see the good in people I may not like. It is a challenge. It takes effort. I often fail. But I try; Jesus told me to!

► Support the Teen Mission Trip: Bottle & Can Drive at St. Therese of Lisieux

Diana Devine, Youth Minister dianad@stol.church

Help our teens make a difference this summer by supporting their mission trip through a bottle and can drive! Simply drop off your empty bottles and cans in the brown bin located on the south side of the building (by the dumpster) next to the garage door. All proceeds will go directly toward funding the teens' mission trip, where they will serve others, grow in their faith, and make lasting memories.

Your donation helps make this life-changing experience possible for our young people, and every little bit counts. Thank you for your support!

► Fish Fry Volunteers Needed

Paul Bieber

Our K of C Fish Fries are almost here! Per our customers, St. Therese of Lisieux has one of the best fish fries in the area, but volunteers are needed to make them happen.

We need volunteers on Mar. 7, 14, 21 & 28, and Apr. 4 & 11 to do the following jobs:

- Dishwashing: two shifts - 4 to 6 PM and 6 to 8 PM
- Social Hall Cleanup: 6:30 to 8 PM

Various other tasks (i.e., serving, greeting) need to be done during the evening, as well. You can volunteer for one of two shifts:

- Early: 3:45 to 5:45 PM
- Late: 5:30 to 7:30 PM

Volunteers are also needed after each Friday morning Mass to help package condiments and put place settings on tables in preparation for the evening meal. Simply go to the Social Hall after Mass.

If you are willing to donate some time to make this a great fish fry season or would like more information, please contact Diane Kuptz at 586-747-3591 or dkutz04@comcast.net. We appreciate your help.

The last paragraph of the Gospel is especially telling: “Stop judging, and you will not be judged. Stop condemning, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. Give, and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you.”

Jubilee of Hope 2025 in the Archdiocese of Detroit (Part 4 of 5)

👤 Evangelization Committee

Some people may wonder why the Holy Father named this Jubilee year one of hope. Hope is a simple word, but it often defies an easy definition. It is both a common expression (like “I hope it doesn’t rain tomorrow”) and a theological virtue that “we desire, and with steadfast trust await from God, eternal life and the graces to merit it” (CCC 1843).

The words Pope Francis chose for this theme are “Hope Does Not Disappoint.” Everyone has hope, but it may be dimmed by sadness, sin, or broken dreams and buried by fear or worry. Some may have little or no hope left and are afraid to trust God again. This year of hope is an opportunity for us to demonstrate our hope and, through our prayers and sacrifices, proclaim this faith to the world around us, which is so hungry for it.

In the words of Pope Francis, “Christian hope fills us with serenity when our hearts are burdened by sin and failure. It makes us dream of a new humanity and gives us courage in our efforts to build a fraternal and peaceful world, even when it seems barely worth the effort. Such is hope, the gift that the Lord bestowed on us in Baptism” (Homily, May 9, 2024).

For more information, visit www.aod.org/jubilee or the official Jubilee pages of the Vatican and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

In the Gathering Space after Mass on Feb. 9, teens in our Confirmation prep program collected cash donations to benefit Deo Gratias Detroit. This was part of the nationwide campaign, SOUPer Bowl of Caring, organized by tacklehunger.org. In 2024, we collected $747, and this year, we raised $1,181. Thank you for your generosity! May God repay you tenfold for your generous offerings.

► Welcoming Our New Archbishop

With great joy, we welcome Archbishop-elect Edward J. Weisenburger as the sixth Archbishop of Detroit! Appointed by Pope Francis, he succeeds Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron, who has faithfully served our archdiocese since 2009. Archbishop-elect Weisenburger will be installed on March 18 at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Archbishop-elect Weisenburger, 64, comes to us from the Diocese of Tucson, Arizona, where he has served as bishop since 2017. Originally from Oklahoma, he was ordained a priest in 1987 and later earned a Licentiate in Canon Law. Over the years, he has served in many leadership roles, including vice chancellor, vicar general, and bishop of Salina, Kansas. His episcopal motto, "Behold the Lamb of God," reflects his deep faith and commitment to guiding the Church.

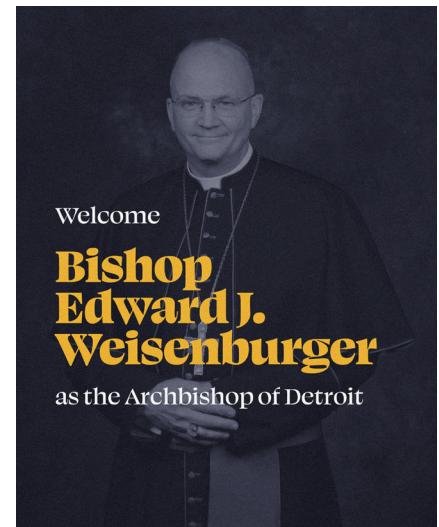

In his message to the faithful of Detroit, he shared, "I am humbled to be called to serve such a noble Church, known for its rich history, vibrant ministries, and dedicated clergy and laity." Archbishop Vigneron also extended a warm welcome, saying, "On behalf of all the people of God in the Archdiocese of Detroit, I extend to Archbishop Weisenburger a heartfelt welcome to his new home."

As we prepare to embrace our new shepherd, let us keep Archbishop-elect Weisenburger in our prayers. May the Holy Spirit guide him as he leads our archdiocese into the future, continuing the mission of evangelization and service to Christ.

We also extend our gratitude to Archbishop Vigneron for his years of faithful leadership and ask for God's blessings upon him in his retirement.

Let us join together in prayer and celebration as we welcome Archbishop-elect Weisenburger to Detroit!
