HOW CAN I HELP OTHERS SEE
THE TRANSFORMATIVE LIGHT?

#CONNECTINGPOINT

CONNECTING POINT

Deacon Jeff Loeb, St. Isidore jeff@stisidore.church

One day, I was setting up my new router after cutting ties with cable and diving into the wonderful world of streaming TV. As part of that process, I had to connect my TV and computer to Wi-Fi. Without entering a passcode or connecting to Wi-Fi, I would never have been able to receive signals in response to my searches.

The Gospel for the second week of Lent focuses on the transfiguration of Jesus. The disciples were able to witness the divine glory of Jesus, but more importantly, they were given hope in times of darkness. As disciples, their task was to receive God's signal and use it to help others see the transformative light. We, too, are disciples called to unleash the Gospel and are reminded to live as examples of faith, trust, and divine transformation. We can guide others by demonstrating a life centered on Christ, and by trusting in God's promises, we can inspire hope in those who struggle with doubt. We can reflect His light to those in darkness, but first, we need to be open to receiving His "Wi-Fi signal" by "entering our passcode" through prayer so that God can reveal Himself to us.

The second reading features God speaking with Abram, calling him to trust in something beyond his understanding. God asked him to look up and try to count the stars, which represented his many descendants. Interestingly, the Lord told Abram to do this during the day. Abram couldn't see the stars during the day, but the Lord was trying to teach him that he would need faith and trust in Him; the descendants would be there even if he couldn't see them! This passage is another reminder that transformation begins with trust—trust in God's plan, even when the path is unclear. Like Abram, we must trust in God's promises, and like the disciples, we must open our minds and hearts to connect to God's "Wi-Fi signal" through prayer so we can listen to His voice. Then, we can share this light by encouraging faith in others, walking with them in their doubts, and reflecting God's presence with our words and actions. Transformation happens when we witness God's power and share that vision with those around us.

This Lenten season, come into the desert with us, walk the Stations of the Cross, and share meals with us to connect with your fellow disciples. Connect with God so that you, too, may go out and help others see the transformative light within you!

► Lenten Stations of the Cross

Rebecca Poupard, Director of Worship rebeccap@stol.church

As we delve into the Lenten season, I wanted to share with you the many opportunities and variations of the Stations of the Cross that will be provided here at St. Therese of Lisieux. This year, we are offering traditional stations every Friday at 9 AM (immediately following daily Mass), as well as a different version presented at 7 PM. Here is the schedule for the evening and Good Friday Stations.

- 3/21 Traditional Stations

- 3/28 "Love From the Cross" led by the music ministry
- 4/4 Traditional Stations
- 4/11 Stations led by the lectors
- 4/18 "Love From the Cross" led by the music ministry (12:30 PM)

I hope to see you at these various opportunities to pray and reflect on the Passion of Jesus Christ this Lent. Our world needs us to love more like Jesus, and what better way is there to learn how to love than by remembering that Jesus died for us?

► Brown Bag Project - Thank You!

👤 John Karski, Director of Evangelical Charity 📧 johnk@stol.church

Once again, the response to our Brown Bag Project was overwhelming.

This year's donations helped replenish the pantry shelves of the Agape Center, St. Francis-St. Maximilian, and our parish's St. Vincent de Paul collection.

A special thank you goes out to all our generous parishioners and to the Gardening Angels and Knights of Columbus members who helped sort and deliver the items. Pictured are the donations for the Agape Center and those who helped deliver them and stock the shelves. With the help of Tom VanSlembrouck, we had the opportunity to use a delivery truck from Deneweth's Garden Supply, which made the task so much easier. Finally, a big thanks to Kroger for providing the brown bags.

Why Catholics Fast and Abstain

👤 Evangelization Committee

Fasting is a biblical discipline that can be defended from both the Old and New Testaments. Christ expected his disciples to fast (Mt 9:14-15) and issued instructions on how they should do so (Mt 6:16-18). Catholics follow this pattern by holding a partial fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.

Abstinence from certain foods is also a biblical discipline. In Daniel 10:2-3, we read, "In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three weeks. I ate no delicacies, no meat or wine entered my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, for the full three weeks."

Catholics use a practice similar to Daniel's: They abstain from eating meat on Fridays during Lent to commemorate Christ's Crucifixion. The only kind of flesh they eat on Fridays is fish, which is a symbol of Christ.

The practice of giving something up for Lent is not mandatory. Giving something up can be a sign of sacrifice. By denying ourselves something we enjoy, we discipline our wills so that our pleasures do not rule us. There are many reasons to follow this practice:

- To be reminded of our dependence on God
- To acknowledge that we do not and cannot fully provide for ourselves without Him
- To do penance
- To unite our hearts with Jesus' in prayer
