#CONNECTINGPOINT

WHAT SPIRITUAL PRACTICE CAN I RECOMMIT TO THIS WEEK?

CONNECTING POINT

Peggy Casing, Director of Discipleship Formation peggycc@stol.church

Nowadays, parents are beyond busy; I hear it from them every day. I also listen to retirees tell me they are so busy that they couldn't fit a job into their lives if they wanted to! I attended college while raising young children; I understand "busy." Don't we all? On top of our busyness, life also happens, with its trials, grief, and suffering. Beyond that, when Lent arrives, most of us try to carve out time to do something in addition to everything else that we already have on our plates. In this environment, it is easy for us to become complainers or to find that our best Lenten intentions get left in the dust.

Today, if you were at a liturgy that used the regularly assigned readings for "year C" (instead of those used in the presence of our OCIA Candidates and Elect), they all mentioned the trials and suffering that befell either the Israelites, Galileans, or those at Siloam. In the second reading, Paul

warns the Corinthians not to fall into the same traps that the Israelites did during their time in the desert. He says that although they experienced God's presence and blessings—passing through the Red Sea, eating manna, drinking water from the rock—they grew complacent and disobedient. Paul emphasizes that their failure to remain vigilant in their faith led to their downfall. Reminding them, he says, "Therefore, whoever thinks he is standing secure should take care not to fall." We hear this same assertion echoed in the gospel when Jesus' story reminds us to tend our relationships with God so they may bear fruit—and not die.

Famous for their suffering, complaining, or ultimate demise, each of these groups of people is a bit like each of us, whether we'd like to admit it or not. Complacency can arise when we take God's blessings for granted or assume that our past faithfulness guarantees future security. Moreover, in the chaos of media consumption, work, and more, it is easy to put our relationships with God on the back burner. We see this, especially during Lent, when we often make promises to God, such as reading the bible or attending extra Masses, but then let them slide.

At about the mid-point in Lent, it's a good time to check in on these Lenten promises. How are you doing? Are you cultivating the "soil" of your soul? Many of us gave up sweets or something else that we enjoy. Is that sacrifice bringing you closer to God or providing you the opportunity to share his love with those around you? If not, consider switching things up. Nobody ever said that you can't change your Lenten commitment if your goal is to deepen your faith. If you bit off more than you can chew, scale back. For example, write in your Lenten Journal and follow through by discussing the questions and themes in your small group. If that's still overwhelming, choose the part that feeds you most, whether it's the journal or the group. Maybe you've made another pledge. Simply do that one "thing" and do it well. Whatever and wherever you are tending the soil of your soul, may we all find ourselves blossoming abundantly on Easter morning.

GROW Program Updates - Week of March 9

Children in grades 1-6 reflected on Lent and Jesus' 40 days in the desert. They discussed the temptations faced by Jesus at that time and how we can learn to be strong in the face of challenges by following Jesus' example. Children took home CRS (Catholic Relief Services) Rice Bowls and considered ways to pray, fast, and give during Lent.

The First Eucharist Workshops took place on March 1 and 8. Parents and children spent the morning and early afternoon learning about the Blessed Sacrament through prayer, catechesis, games, songs, and a church tour. Please keep them in your prayers as they move toward celebrating the sacrament later this spring.

► Why Am I A Knight?

👤 Ted Lang, St. Therese of Lisieux Council 11957

There are many reasons why every Catholic man should be a member of the Knights of Columbus, but, for me, one reason stands out clearly: The total barrage of bad news about our world surrounds us every day and calls for action. Turn on the TV, open a newspaper, listen to the radio—sickness, wars, political upheaval, natural disasters, crime in our streets, loss of respect for the lives of the elderly and unborn, just to name a few.

The need for help is obvious. It's so easy to just throw up our hands in despair and believe there is nothing that we can do about it. That's our world—accept it that way and just get on with my own life. I am only one person; I can't change the world. Or can I?

That's where a million Knights of Columbus step in. The Knights are, in fact, changing the world every

Stations of the Cross

👤 Evangelization Committee

The Stations of the Cross represent events from Jesus' Passion and death. At each station, we use our senses and imaginations to reflect prayerfully upon Jesus' suffering, death, and Resurrection.

1. Jesus is Condemned to Death: Pontius Pilate condemns Jesus to death.
2. Jesus Takes Up His Cross: Jesus willingly accepts and patiently bears His cross.
3. Jesus Falls the First Time: Weakened by torments and loss of blood, Jesus falls beneath His cross.
4. Jesus Meets His Sorrowful Mother: Jesus meets His mother, Mary, who is filled with grief.

5. Simon of Cyrene Helps Jesus Carry the Cross: Soldiers force Simon of Cyrene to carry the cross.
6. Veronica Wipes the Face of Jesus: Veronica steps through the crowd to wipe Jesus' face.
7. Jesus Falls the Second Time: Jesus falls beneath the weight of the cross the second time.
8. Jesus Meets the Women of Jerusalem: Jesus tells the women to weep not for Him but for themselves and their children.
9. Jesus Falls the Third Time: Weakened almost to the point of death, Jesus falls the third time.
10. Jesus is Stripped of His Garments: The soldiers strip

Jesus of His garments, treating Him as a common criminal.

11. Jesus is Nailed to the Cross: Jesus' hands and feet are nailed to the cross.
12. Jesus Dies on the Cross: After suffering greatly on the cross, Jesus bows His head and dies.
13. Jesus is Taken Down from the Cross: The lifeless body of Jesus is tenderly placed in the arms of Mary, His mother.
14. Jesus is Laid in the Tomb: Jesus' disciples place His body in the tomb.

Make a commitment to attend the Stations of the Cross this Lenten Season.

day—across the ocean, across America, and right here in Shelby Township. For example, at January's membership meeting, we donated to help Mary's Mantle, Ryan Rocks, Rising Stars Academy Foundation, Gift of Life Michigan, Right to Life, Challenger Baseball, St. Vincent de Paul, and Detroit Catholic Campus Ministry. And that's just a small sample of the many people we help in many ways.

You can help, too. It's what you and I are called to do. Remember that old saying, "Better to light one candle than to curse the darkness." Light your own candle. Join the Knights!
