HOW CAN I BE
GOD'S LOVING EMBRACE
TO SOMEONE THIS WEEK?

CONNECTING POINT

👤 Elaine Rhein - St. Francis / St. Maximilian ✉ elaine.rhein@gmail.com

As we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Lent, we hear the Parable of the Prodigal Son—a story about the relationship between a father and his two sons, which may be as complicated as many of our own family situations. I recommend reading Henri Nouwen's The Return of the Prodigal Son, a book about the dangers of being self-righteous and unforgiving, as well as the importance of understanding God's truly unconditional love and forgiveness.

While preparing for this reflection, I found myself drawn to the opening passage of today's Gospel: "The tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, 'This man welcomes sinners and eats with them'" (Luke 15:1-3). Reflect on that simple sentence and see where you fit. Are you a tax collector? Tax collectors were known to be dishonest. Are you a sinner? It is hard to admit, but we are all sinners. Are you a Pharisee or scribe? Though well-educated in their faith, Jesus often labeled them as hypocrites because of their love for power and honor. They did not understand the importance of serving others with justice and mercy.

In my own life, I can unfortunately see myself in all three groups. Finding myself being dishonest (like tax collectors and sinners) bothers me a great deal, but it troubles me even more that I can also see myself as a Pharisee and scribe. I'm a fairly active and educated person in my faith; I go to Mass, partake in the Eucharist, go to Reconciliation, attend Adoration, and pray daily... but these are some of the same actions that the Pharisees and scribes found important. And while they are important, I realized there are many ways I fall behind in what Jesus finds important—serving others with justice and mercy.

So, how can I be God's loving embrace to someone this week? Personally, I will work on my ability to forgive others, keep my sense of entitlement in check, and focus more on showing mercy than casting judgment. To start, I am going to become more aware of the role of the Corporal Works of Mercy in my daily life (i.e., feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, shelter the homeless, clothe the naked, visit the sick, visit the prisoner, bury the dead, and give alms to the poor).

To raise my awareness, I have to start thinking differently. When I see someone in need, I must focus on helping them instead of judging them for their situation. I also have to remember that "visiting the prisoner" does not only include those who are incarcerated; people struggling with addiction also live their lives in a different type of prison. In addition, "visiting the sick" can mean the simple act of donating blood, visiting an elderly neighbor, or calling a friend who is struggling.

If I open my mind and heart to what Jesus asks of me, the things I can do are endless. I hope you take on the challenge of showing someone God's loving embrace this week.

May our Lenten journeys allow us to slow down and pay attention to God's role in our lives. Remember, God is always there; we are the ones who have trouble listening.

Adoration

Adoration is a time spent offering prayers and devotions in the Real Presence of our Lord Jesus Christ in the Eucharist, the sacred host.

This Eucharistic presence, through the transubstantiation of the bread and wine to the body and blood, is why many Catholic faithful frequent Adoration. This presence of Jesus in the Eucharist is with us at each Mass. To grow in our love for Jesus, spend an hour in perpetual adoration and celebrate your Catholic faith.

What are you supposed to do at Adoration?

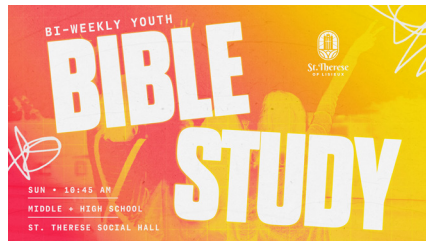

You can start your visit with a greeting. Genuflect, get comfortable, and be with Jesus. You don't have to do anything.

The Catholic faith recognizes that the greatest gift God gives us is Himself. Adoration is another way for us to recognize that gift outside of receiving the Eucharist at Mass. Consider the suggestions below, but don't overthink it.

- Pray
- Say the Rosary
- Write in a prayer journal
- Read
- Meditate using scripture
- Ask for forgiveness or intercede for others
- Listen to faith-based music
- Make a commitment to visit our Lord in Adoration at least one time during this Lenten season.

At St. Therese, Adoration takes place every Thursday from 9 AM to 4 PM, with the first Thursday of each month featuring an extended time (until 7 PM) due to the inclusion of dinner, praise, and worship. Join us on Apr. 3 for this special extended evening.

SUN | MAR 30 | 10:45 AM | ST. THERESE wisdom and purpose. This is a great opportunity to deepen your faith and learn how to apply wisdom in your own life. Don't miss it—bring a friend, and we'll see you there!

► Mother's Day "Tea for Thee" Event

👤 Marilyn Cito 📧 marilync@stol.church

I don't know if you've noticed the tulips peeking out of the ground or the birds beginning to chirp in the morning, but spring is around the corner, and with that comes Mother's Day! Mother's Day is such a wonderful opportunity to express gratitude for the amazing women who brought us into the world and nurtured us with unconditional love. It is also a wonderful way to recognize all of the women in our lives who have supported, mentored, or shared a special bond with us over the years.

This year, St. Therese of Lisieux's Health Ministry will host our second Mother's Day "Tea for Thee" on Tuesday, May 6, from 5:30 to 8 PM in honor of the women in our lives. What better way to cherish the significant roles of mothers and women than by sharing a cup of tea (and food!) with other women and experiencing that warmth and connection? Our theme for this year's event is "Body, Mind, and Spirit Connection," and we will focus on the importance of self-care for our well-being as women. Our keynote speaker will be our own St. Therese Health Ministry member, Theresa Emch, NP, RN, who will talk about the importance of taking care of ourselves—just like we take care of others. Think about the many women who take care of their spouses or partners, parents, children, or other people in their lives in addition to themselves! We are also blessed to have Health Ministry members who will share additional tips on how to stay healthy.

In addition to sharing tea, we will also share wonderful memories of our mothers, sisters, grandmothers, friends, and any of the special women in our lives over the years. So, come prepared with great stories about why these women were so special!

All women are welcome at this celebratory tea event, and we hope you can join us! Seating will be limited to 150. Tickets are $20 and will be available in the parish office starting Tuesday, Apr. 14. A seating chart will also be available for you to indicate the table/people you would like to sit with. If you are a vegetarian, please also indicate so when reserving your seat.

If you have any questions, please contact Marilyn Cito, Parish Nurse, at 586-254-4433 Ext. 320 or via email at Marilync@stol.church. Usual workdays are Tuesdays and Thursdays, but you can always leave a message. God Bless, and we hope to see you there!

► Lenten Rice Bowl Program

👤 John Karski, Director of Evangelical Charity 📧 johnk@stol.church

CRS Rice Bowl is Catholic Relief Services' Lenten faith-in-action program for families and faith communities. What better way to share what God gave us than with those who have lost everything or never had anything to begin with? Rice bowls are available in the Gathering Space for anyone wishing to participate. The program will continue through Lent.

► Join the Eucharistic Minister's Ministry

We are seeking new volunteers to join the Eucharistic Minister's Ministry in time for Easter. If you are interested, please call the parish office or call, text, or email Audrey Victor at 586-295-0620 or avictor@comcast.net.
