FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

MUSINGS + MESSAGES

Msgr. John Kasza, Moderator frjohn@stol.church

Emmanuel: "God is with us." Do we really believe that? Do we truly believe that God is living and active in our lives? Or do we just say that because it's what we do as Christians?

The word Emmanuel appears in both the first reading from Isaiah and the Gospel. The second reading, from Paul's Letter to the Romans, mentions the word apostle, which literally means "to be sent." By our baptisms and confirmations, we were made heirs to the Kingdom of God, and we are challenged to go forth and proclaim the Good News. We are sent as emissaries of the Gospel and called to be holy.

So, if we genuinely believe that God is with us, we should never fear our mission of being sent forth. In other words, the presence of God within

Who is God calling me to stand by?

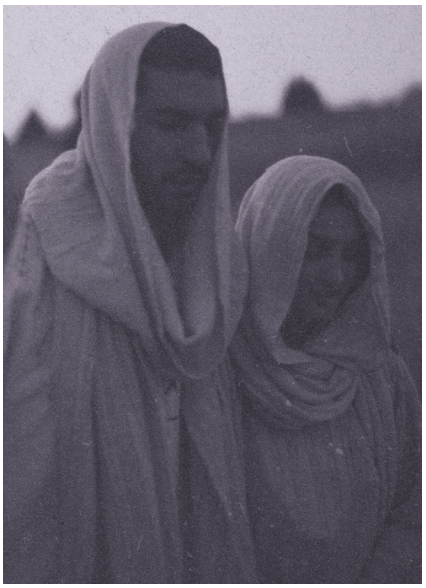

Joseph reveals something essential about faith on this Fourth Sunday of Advent. He is confronted with a confusing and unexpected situation that could damage his reputation, yet Scripture calls him "righteous" because he allowed his heart to enter into God's plan.

Joseph receives Mary as a mission entrusted to him. His response is not passive; it is courageous participation. Despite its cost, he embraces God's will and accepts his dutiful role in nurturing the life that did not originate with him, protecting the Son that God was bringing into the world. In his righteousness, Joseph demonstrates paternal tenderness and responsibility by participating in God's work.

For us, Advent now reaches its deepest invitation. Just as God called Joseph to embrace His will, we, too, are being called to allow God to reshape our interior worlds so that we can carry what He entrusts to us. Sometimes, that means making space for a person who needs support. Other times, it may involve welcoming a new direction, a change we did not foresee, or a responsibility that stretches us, making us wonder: Why is this mission being given to me?

Because God took flesh in the Incarnation of His Son in Mary's womb, every person carries dignity. Everyone's story has human and divine dignity because the Word became life among us. When Joseph took Mary into his life, he surrendered his plans to allow God to fulfill His plan of human redemption.

This final week of Advent, we can ask ourselves: What or who has God given me to care for?

A Christmas Blessing for Family and Friends

Evangelization Committee

As you gather with family and friends, here is a special prayer of thanks to share with your loved ones:

May your table be full, your laughter loud,
and your hearts be light.
May the joy of Christ's birth remind you that hope is never far away,
and that love is the greatest gift we can share.

Lord, thank you for the gift of the season,
for the light that breaks through darkness,
for the warmth of togetherness, forgiveness,
and for the promise of hope and new beginnings.
Help us to carry this spirit beyond today and into every day You give us.

Amen.

Consider joining us for a discussion of Thomas à Kempis' classic novel, The Imitation of Christ, The St. Paul Center's study of "The Bible and the Sacraments," or even a discussion of the book, Life of the Beloved: Spiritual Living in a Secular World, by Henri Nouwen. Each of these groups meets regularly, and all are open to new members. Socks for St. Leo's and Blanket the Streets

Many thanks to those in the Living Faith and Confirmation Programs who donated warm socks for the "Socks for St. Leo's" effort. More than 200 pairs of socks were collected. On December 1 and 2, all of the children in the GROW Program bagged these socks and created heartfelt Christmas greeting cards to be included with the packages. These socks will be included in a delivery to St. Leo's later in the month.

On December 3, more than 200 parishioners, many children from our Discipleship Formation programs, and members of the community gathered for a night of goodwill and crafting. More than 150 large fleece blankets were created by these volunteers, who also enjoyed cookies and cocoa. The blankets were given to Deo Gratias Ministries in Detroit, where they will be given directly to those in need. One GROW student even brought his entire baseball team to the event, and everyone had a good time!

2025 St. Therese Health Ministry Christmas Letter

The Christmas season always prompts me to pause and reflect on the past year and the blessings that God has bestowed upon us. Although the world seems chaotic with natural disasters, wars, unrest, unhappiness, and anxiety, we are still blessed in many ways.

It is important to keep our parishioners, community, and world in our daily prayers and to offer support to those who may be physically or mentally suffering. It is our responsibility to help those in need and to be compassionate, understanding, and kind. The St. Therese of Lisieux Health Ministry is here to help you. Please contact a Health Ministry member or the Parish Office if you need help or support.

The Health Ministry has been busy with our "usual" activities, but we have also added some new and exciting programs! To continue our annual tradition, I would like to share some of this year's Health Ministry highlights:

- Our Medical Lending Closet provides durable medical equipment, such as wheelchairs, shower chairs, and commodes, at no cost to our community. This year, we served over 180 people with diverse equipment needs and conducted numerous distributions of protein supplements, briefs, and other medical supplies.
- We delivered 13 educational programs during the year, including Wellness Strategies, Strokes, Kidney Disease, Caring for Caregivers, Crime Prevention for Seniors, Veterans and Spousal Benefits, First Aid, AED Training, Active Shooter Training, and Emergency Plans for Parishioners. 798 people attended our classes and workshops throughout the year.
- We held three classes on First Aid, AEDs, Medical Emergency Training, Active Shooter Training, and Emergency Planning for staff, K of C members, and ushers.
- We provided a CPR course to St. Therese of Lisieux Health Ministry members.
- We hosted 16 balance workshop classes for seniors, with 40 participants.
- We hosted three vaccine events, with 86 people attending.
- The Grief Ministry, facilitated by Marilyn Kylmala, sent sympathy and Christmas cards to families of deceased parishioners and hosted a Memorial Mass.
- Heidi Boccomino, our Social Worker and Health Ministry Member, facilitated our "Hope for the Holidays" workshop.
- We hosted three nine-week Grief Support groups (27 sessions) for parishioners and the community. Donna Hagg, Paula Breitschuh, and Sr. Mary Andrew helped facilitate these groups, with approximately 15 people attending each session. The Multiple Sclerosis (MS) support group also takes place at St. Therese.
- Sue Verellen and Donna Ludwig facilitated 2 Widow Social groups.
- Sue Verellen and other Health Ministry members have provided more than 250 hours of respite care, visits, phone calls, and texts to parishioners.
- We hosted five blood drives this year, collecting 119 units of blood.
- The Meals from the Heart program, overseen by Mickey Wilson, is ongoing and serves meals to parishioners who are ill or recovering from surgery.
- 52 weekly medical education articles were published in the bulletin.
- We hosted our annual Mother's Day Tea, with 105 attendees.
- The Colon Cancer Blood Screening event was held for the first time on December 14.

This list is not exhaustive of all the countless hours and activities in which St. Therese of Lisieux's Health Ministry participates. Furthermore, none of this would be possible without the help of our 48 Health Ministry members. Each donates their talents, time, and energy selflessly for the good of our parish community. Not everyone in the Health Ministry is a healthcare worker, but each person contributes in their own way to make our ministry successful. We are always looking for new Health Ministry members. If you are interested in joining this rewarding ministry, please contact Marilyn Cito.

I feel blessed to work with each of our ministry members, Monsignor Kasza, the wonderful St. Therese of Lisieux administration and staff, ministries, volunteers, and parishioners. It is a privilege to be one of your St. Therese of Lisieux parish nurses.

us compels us under the impetus of the Holy Spirit to go out into the world and preach the Good News by our lives.

Although Joseph was afraid to undertake the task of being Jesus' foster father, he trusted that God would be with him. When we are afraid to live our faith, look to the example of St. Joseph and trust that God is with us. We have been sent out on a mission to bring Christ to others. As Joseph took care of Mary and Jesus, shepherding them as he was sent by God, may we, too, trust that God has a plan for us.

This Advent season is an opportunity to renew our commitments to being open to the Holy Spirit, who will lead and guide us on our journeys of faith. While we may be afraid or confused, we need to take courage that God is with us.

We pray for the sick...
