14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CONNECTING POINT

 Msgr. John Kasza, Moderator  frjohn@stol.church

When I was a teenager, I wanted to sleep in during the summer, but my parents had other ideas—chores. I often heard them say, “You’ll have plenty of time to sleep when you’re dead. Get up and get to work.” In this week’s Gospel passage, though, we hear Jesus telling us, “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.”

This selection is often used for funerals, so in some people’s minds, rest is equated to death. We will, indeed, rest when we have gone to our eternal reward, but it is good to rest from our labors while we are still alive. I know of many people (especially men) who, after retiring, die within six months to a year because they do not know what to do for themselves; they are unable to relax.

Msgr. John Kasza, Moderator ✉ frjohn@stol.church

► It's okay to rest.

Jesus invites us to rest and relax. While labor is useful and gives us purpose in life, it is not meant to define us. Yet, how often in gatherings does the conversation turn to queries about our occupations? As humans, we have value because of who we are—not what we do.

As children of God, we have been gifted with dignity and worth. Because we are made in the image of God, we strive to be like God in all things. One often-overlooked aspect is that God rested on the seventh day after creation. If rest was necessary for God, how much more is it necessary for us? Jesus often “escaped” from the crowds to get some rest. Sometimes, He had only a few hours on a boat or a mountain. Other times, He left for days or weeks, enjoying a true rest and retreat.

This year, we celebrate 250 years as a nation. Think about the challenges we have faced over that time, but don't forget that we have had many “restful” years, during which we grew as a country and as Americans. Our nation was built on hard work and strong values, yet there were years when we enjoyed peace and prosperity.

As you celebrate these holidays and enjoy the summer, take some time to rest and relax. Spend some time recreating yourself to be more like God. Think about the gifts and talents that the Creator has given you. Use these days to “be” rather than to “do.” In addition, take the time to give thanks to God for all that you have received as a human, an American, and a Catholic Christian.

The yoke of the Lord is easy, and His burden is light. Allow yourself the luxury of resting and creating space for God to give you peace.

MCREST

St. Isidore is again partnering with MCREST to support men, women, and children experiencing homelessness. Volunteers will prepare meals at St. Isidore and transport and serve them at the MCREST facility in Mt. Clemens. Individuals, groups, ministries, and organizations are invited to participate. Financial support and donations of hygiene items are also needed. Watch the bulletin in mid-July for volunteer opportunities, donation details, and online sign-up information to serve those in need with compassion and dignity.

THEOLOGY CLASSES ARE COMING TO SHELBY TOWNSHIP

MORE INFO

WEEKLY TUES | SEP 1 | 7 - 9 PM | ST. JOHN VIANNEY CHURCH

SACRED HEART MAJOR SEMINARY THEOLOGY CLASSES

Sacred Heart Major Seminary is proud to partner with St. John Vianney to bring theology courses to their parish (54045 Schoenherr Rd.)! Starting September 1, they will offer one college-level course every semester from their most popular program, the Certificate in Catholic Theology (CCT). These courses are perfect for Catholics who want to dive deeper into their faith or start a path toward leadership in their parish. For more information, scan the QR code or call 313-883-8696.

► Back to School Drive

John Karski, Director of Evangelical Charity johnk@stol.church

As you may know, most school districts ask students to bring in supplies at the beginning of each academic year for use in their classes. These lists can be quite extensive to ensure students have the tools they need throughout the year. This can also be quite a burden for families who are struggling to make ends meet!

Your contribution will certainly help any child anxious about starting school—whether it's a new school, a different grade, making friends, or fitting in—especially when they know their family is struggling. At least they will be comfortable having all the right supplies in their backpacks as they walk into their classrooms this fall. Please return your donations by Monday, August 10.

► Prayer for Archdiocesan Restructuring

Come, Holy Spirit.

In all things, help us share the light of your love. Amen.

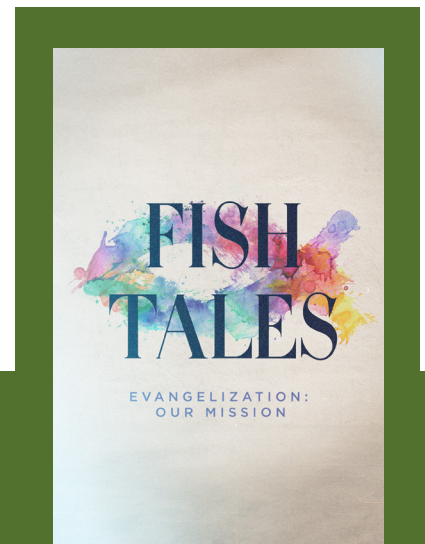

Make your presence known as we restructure the parishes and ministries of our Archdiocese.

St. Anne, pray for us.
Blessed Solanus Casey, pray for us.
Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.

Be our light on the path we walk together.

Help us hear your voice in the quiet of our own hearts, in the wisdom of others, and in the world around us.

We know you are with us in every step of the process. Give us clarity, understanding, and direction.

Part 4: Adoption of Sustainable Lifestyles

This week, we continue our thoughts on Our Common Home (from Pope Francis' 2015 encyclical, Laudato Si' ("Praise be to You")) by taking a closer look at how we use and conserve our resources and energy. A sustainable lifestyle is indeed a challenge to our "throwaway culture," as it encourages mindfulness about consumption, production, and daily choices.

Here are a few practical actions we can easily achieve:

- Use natural light.
- Turn off unused appliances.
- Walk, bike, or use public transportation (when you can) to reduce fossil fuel usage.
- Shift toward a plant-based diet.
- Buy goods locally.
- Reduce, reuse, recycle, and repair.
- Visit second-hand shops.
- Consider using a reusable water bottle rather than individual, disposable plastic ones.
- Many more!

We all have a moral and spiritual responsibility to make a difference, commit to change, and learn and practice a more holistic approach to protect and care for our common home.

DISCIPLESHIP FORMATION

Day with David Updates

St. Therese welcomed children to a one-day Bible Camp to learn about the life of King David. Children from our parish and the surrounding community enjoyed lessons, crafts, snacks, games, and friendship. Many thanks to the teen volunteers who joined us to help make the event great! Watch for more information regarding our annual Summer Family Night on Monday, August 3!

► Thank You From Right to Life-Lifespan

👤 Roberta Loncar, RTL-Lifespan

Right-to-Life Lifespan wishes to thank St. Therese parishioners for their continued support of the Father's Day candy bar fundraiser. RTL-Lifespan raised a total of $1,123 for its educational efforts. We sincerely appreciate the outpouring of support for both life and all our fathers!

Rambling Roses Senior Group

Our next meeting is on Thursday, July 9, beginning at 9:30 AM, in the Social Hall. We will continue to celebrate Independence Day. After the meeting, we will play trivia. At 1 PM, we will host Macomb County Clerk Anthony Forlini, who will give a presentation on Fraud Notify alerts for real estate deeds.

► MCREST Returns This August—Serve With Us!

👤 Mike Aprile

St. Isidore is blessed once again to partner with MCREST in supporting individuals and families experiencing homelessness in our community.

This year, rather than hosting only men at our parish, volunteers from St. Isidore will prepare and serve meals for men, women, and children at the MCREST facility in Mt. Clemens throughout the week of August 16 to 22. This new model allows us to continue our commitment to this vital ministry while serving guests where they are currently being housed. We are also adapting our approach by opening volunteer opportunities to individuals, while opportunities for groups/ministries/organizations to take a specific day will still be available.

Volunteer opportunities will include meal preparation at St. Isidore and transporting/serving meals at the MCREST facility. An online sign-up and more information about specific roles will be shared in the parish bulletin by mid-July.

In addition to volunteering, you can donate money through envelopes and online giving, as well as by dropping off essential hygiene items such as tube socks, underwear, t-shirts, travel-size toothpaste, toothbrushes, razors, alcohol-free mouthwash, shaving cream, small bars of soap, shampoo, conditioner, body wash, nail clippers, deodorant, and similar items. Bins for donated items will be located in the St. Isidore Gathering Space and Prayer Garden entrance from July 13 through August 14.

Together, let us continue to be the hands, feet, and heart of Christ for those most in need.
